FURIOUS COMBAT REPORTED HIGH OVER EGYPTIAN FRONTIER

EACH SIDE CLAIMING A VICTORY

African Engagement Follows Closely Upon Greatest Air Fight of the Battle for Britain, Concerning Which Both London and Berlin Publish New and Differing Versions; British Being Withdrawn From Shanghai

NAZI TORPEDO BOATS BUSY IN THE CHANNEL

The biggest air battle ever fought in Africa—a furious combat waged by British and Italian planes high over the burning Libyan-Egyptian desert—was reported today in communiques from Rome and Cairo. Each claimed the victory against a larger force of planes.

The African combat followed closely upon yesterday's greatest air fight of the battle for Britain, concerning which both the British and Germans published new and differing versions today, each side increasing the number of enemy planes it claimed to have destroyed.

The British said they destroyed 60 Nazi planes and damaged many others in a swarm of 400 which attacked a food convoy off the southeastern coast. The earlier London figure was 53 German shot down, 10 more believed downed, and British losses of 16.

The new Berlin version upped the British losses from 34 to 49 and admitted the loss of 10 planes, while repeating that the attack cost British shipping 12 merchant ships totaling 55,000 tons and seven more badly damaged.

In the African action the Italians said 16 of their planes fought 27 British, with a loss of 5 to the British, 2 for the Italians.

But the British communique said the Italians outnumbered the RAF 2 to 1, in spite of which the British "pressed home their attack with such determination that 15 Italian aircraft were destroyed." It admitted the loss of two British planes.

Meanwhile, as the African situation became more menacing to the British lifeline, the Cairo police commandant cancelled all leaves of officers and men "as a precautionary measure against emergencies." The government of Egypt, determined to keep out of the war if possible, remained outwardly confident that the British could handle the situation.

In the Far East the British announced they were withdrawing 70,000 men from Shanghai, leaving about 10,000 British subjects and British investments estimated to be worth $800,000,000. (Turn to Page Eleven)

YOUTH DIES WITH A CONFESSION ON LIPS

Florence, Ariz., Aug. 9.—Nonchalant Robert Burgunder went to his death in the lethal gas chamber at dawn today with a confession on his lips.

As he was being strapped to the chair in the execution chamber of the Arizona penitentiary, Burgunder said: "I admit the killings. I never tried to defend myself."

The 23-year-old man was convicted of killing E. B. Peterson, who, with Ellis M. Koury, was shot to death in the desert near here April 29, 1939.

After his statement the steel floor was slammed and the cyanide pellets dropped into a container of acid.

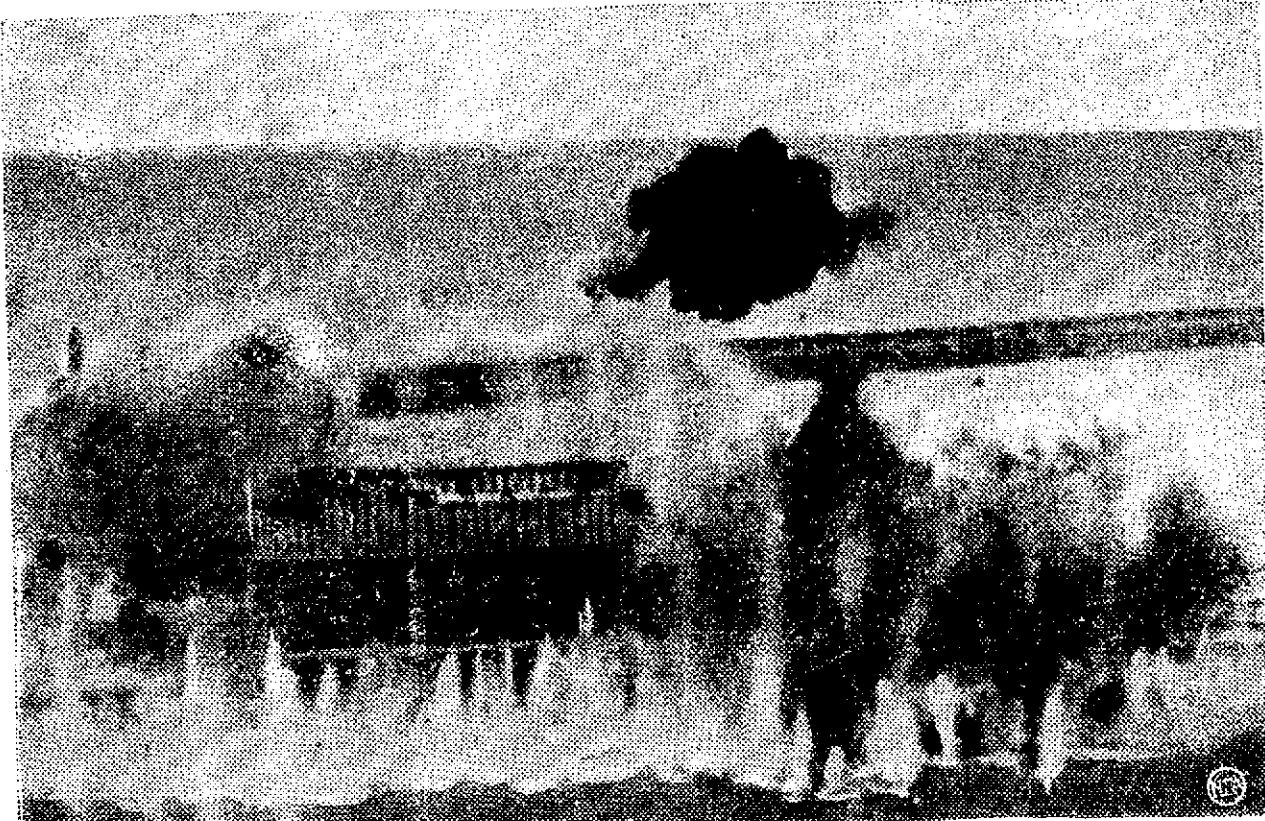

As the wisps of blue fumes lifted upward, Burgunder breathed deeply and died seven minutes after his entrance into the death chamber.

Finishing Touches Rapidly Being Put On Re-Germanization of Alsace-Lorraine Area

Basel, Switzerland, Aug. 9.—(AP)—The German army of occupation and Nazi civilian officials in Alsace-Lorraine rapidly are putting the finishing touches on re-Germanization of the two provinces, which apparently await only the stroke of a pen on a peace treaty to make them officially part of the German Reich once more.

They are proceeding thoroughly in transformation of the area won from Germany by Chancellor Bismarck, lost by Kaiser Wilhelm in the World War and now won again by Adolf Hitler.

KRESGE OFFICIAL TO BE INVITED TO EXPLAIN LETTER

Washington, Aug. 9.—(AP)—The Senate campaign expenditures committee today requested C. E. Tuttle, Detroit executive of the S. S. Kresge Co., to appear for questioning about a letter Tuttle sent to some company employees regarding contributions for the campaign of Wendell L. Willkie, Republican presidential nominee.

Chairman Gillette (D-Iowa) said he had been instructed by the committee to invite Tuttle to give his views on the letter, inasmuch as Senator Byrnes (D-SC) had complained formally that it appeared that coercion of company employees was involved in the letter.

Tuttle said in Detroit that the letter was sent only to company managers and other officials and not to clerks, as Byrnes had charged. He said it was neither a "touch" nor a demand for contributions.

"We want to know all of the facts and to what extent this method of soliciting funds is being used," Gillette told reporters. "The Kresge Company and Mr. Tuttle ought to have the fullest opportunity of presenting their views to the committee."

At the same time, Gillette said the committee had found no evidence to indicate that the National Industrial Information Committee, sponsored by the National Association of Manufacturers, was being employed in any way for political purposes.

An unnamed senator had complained informally to the committee that there were reports that the manufacturers' group intended to become active in the national political campaign, Gillette said. This complaint never was made specific, he said.

Governor Discusses Trip to Reservation

Harrisburg, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Governor James said today he hoped his presence at the Cornplanter Indian reservation August 24 might help to keep the peace in Pennsylvania.

James said it was likely he would confer at the Warren county reservation on the contemplated removal of the reservation possibly out of the state because of a flood control project on the upper Allegheny basin. A site in Venango county also has been mentioned.

The governor has been invited by the Indians to receive the title of "chief" in a head-dressing ceremony. "I don't know what name they are going to give me," James said.

Further Drop Shown in Relief Population

Harrisburg, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Continued business improvement for three consecutive months has brought a reduction of 103,000 persons in Pennsylvania's relief population, records of the department of public assistance showed today.

"The reduction is entirely due to economic improvement," said Willard E. Solenberger, chief of public relations in the department. Solenberger said there are now approximately 1,211,000 persons dependent upon state grants of federal work relief payrolls in Pennsylvania.

Pennsylvania Troops Sent Against Invading "Black Army" In First Major War Maneuver

Flying Inspection Trip by General Edward Martin Brings Compliment to the 112th Infantry Regiment of Kane For Best Kitchen

PROGRAM STEPS UP

Lisbon, N. Y., Aug. 9.—(AP)—Pennsylvania's 22d Cavalry moved out at dawn today in a "fierce" counter-attack against an invading "Black Army" as the First Army swung into its first major maneuver of the war games.

Collaborating with the Second Corps, the Pennsylvania troops sought to dislodge the "invaders," represented by the 3rd U. S. Cavalry, who had occupied a strategic hill deep in the "Blue Army" territory.

Theoretically, they had captured all bridges across Grass river and the problem for officers and headquarters soldiers was to retake these objectives.

Hiking exercises took most of the 100,000 guardsmen up and down hills, through streams and across rolling fields yesterday, in a "hardening up" process.

A flying inspection trip by General Edward Martin brought a compliment to the 112th Infantry Regiment of Kane, Pa., for having the best kitchens, and the 103d Medical Regiment, Lancaster, Pa., the best policed outfit.

PLAN TOUR FOR SITE FOR A NEW VETS' HOSPITAL

Washington, Aug. 9.—(AP)—A construction service engineer for the veterans' administration will tour 21 or more central Pennsylvania cities in the near future to study available sites for a new $2,500,000 veterans' hospital, it was announced today.

The administration has not chosen the engineer who will make the trip or set definite dates for his tour, but General Frank T. Hines, administrator of veterans' affairs, in a letter to members of the Pennsylvania delegation in congress indicated the study probably would be made in a week or ten days.

General Hines listed these cities for the engineer's tour: Altoona, Harrisburg, Williamsport, Shamokin, Sunbury, Chambersburg, Lewisburg, Carlisle, DuBois, Lock Haven, Pottsville, Clearfield, Tyrone, Milton, Huntingdon, St.

NOTIFICATION PLANS REVEALED

Elwood, Ind., Aug. 9.—(AP)—The committee in charge made public today the program for notification of Wendell L. Willkie here Aug. 17 of his nomination for president on the Republican ticket.

Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts, national chairman, will make the notification speech. Willkie will accept the nomination in his first major campaign address.

Rep. Charles A. Halleck, of Indiana, who put Willkie's name before the national convention in Philadelphia, will introduce Martin. President-Emeritus William Lloyd Bryan of Indiana University, of which Willkie is a graduate, will pray.

MONOPOLISTIC PRACTICES ARE UNDER INQUIRY

New York, Aug. 9.—(AP)—A federal grand jury delved deeper today into "allegedly monopolistic practices that may stymie the United States preparedness program."

At least ten major industries, some reported to have binding patent agreements with German firms including the Krupp Steel Works, have been under examination for nearly a month, Samuel Isseks, special assistant attorney general, has disclosed.

Involved are patent arrangements said to so bind American war material producers that a "bottleneck" has resulted in the nation's armament program.

Isseks declined to name the industries under investigation but a letter on file in federal court listed producers of machine tools, glass, chemicals, foundry supplies, textiles and fabrics, metal and metal alloy fabrication and road building supplies, plastics and petroleum.

One of the most important phases of the inquiry is the production of magnesium, a metal one third lighter than aluminum and which in alloys is understood to have enabled the Germans to reduce plane weights 20 per cent.

The investigators are seeking to learn why American production of magnesium, comprising 2 to 3 per cent of the earth's surface, was only 2,186 tons in 1938.

FOUR ESCAPE IN STATE COLLEGE PLANE CRASH

State College, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Four persons escaped injury late yesterday when a cabin monoplane coming in for landing at the State College air depot field, failed to clear a fence and turned over in a ground loop.

They were Dr. and Mrs. W. Dale Jamison, of Saginaw, Mich.; Dr. Jamison's mother, Mrs. Jane Jamison, and Miss Jean McCoy, both of Grove City. The landing gear, propeller and a wing of the plane were damaged.

MID-AIR ATTACK ON STEWARDESS IS UNEXPLAINED

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 9.—(AP)—An American Airlines investigator renewed an inquiry today into the reported mid-air juggling of Rosemary Griffith, 24-year-old Flushing, N. Y., stewardess, after members of the sky liners' crew failed to shed light on the incident.

Miss Griffith told a local official of the company yesterday that she was felled in the women's lounge of the west-bound plane by an unidentified assailant as the plane neared Nashville Wednesday night.

Roy Mitchell, assistant operations manager, said in Memphis after a talk with Captain James Stroud, flight officer, and other crew members, that none could disclose why Miss Griffith swallowed a key to the plane's mail compartment or how she was knocked unconscious.

Ambassador Cudahy Publicly Scolded

Washington, Aug. 9.—(AP)—John Cudahy, American ambassador to Belgium, was reprimanded publicly by the State Department today for his press interview in London on Belgian food conditions and other aspects of the German occupation of that country.

Summer Welles, acting secretary of state, reading a formal statement at his press conference, said that Cudahy, by direction of President Roosevelt had been requested to return to the United States immediately for consultation.

DEFENSE PROGRAM RETARDED

Secretary of War Stimson and Lewis Compton, Assistant in Navy Department, Inform Congressional Committee Divided Limitations and Business Uncertainty Over Tax Legislation Are Delaying Production of Planes and Armaments

BOTH INSIST EXCESS PROFITS TAX NEEDED

Washington, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Secretary of War Stimson and Lewis Compton, assistant secretary of the navy, told a congressional committee today that profit limitations and business uncertainty over tax legislation had delayed production of airplanes, guns, ships and other vital items of the defense program.

The two testified with regard to an excess profits tax containing various provisions designed to speed armament manufacture. One section would permit the cost of plant expansion to be deducted from taxes over a five year period. Another would lift present profit limitations imposed by the Vinson-Trammell act.

Stimson testified that the army had been able to sign contracts for only 33 of 4,000 planes appropriated for during June, "chiefly" because of uncertainties over tax legislation. Nor was the airplane industry unique in this regard, he declared, the problem of expansion applied also to makers of tanks, artillery, ammunition and the like.

Compton said that the navy had one contract involving $10,000,000 for five-inch guns for six new vessels. But the sub-contractors involved refused to accept business under the eight per cent profit limitation of the Vinson-Trammell act.

There was an aircraft company which made a contract on the act's 12 per cent profit limitation for planes but before the contract was awarded the profit was cut to eight per cent and subcontractors refused to do the work, Compton said.

Citing other examples of Navy Department handings, Compton said that one firm which normally produced 100 airplane motors monthly increased its production to 700 by expansion privately financed.

HOOPER AND WILLKIE TO HOLD CONFERENCE

Colorado Springs, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Wendell L. Willkie is completing arrangements for a weekend conference with former President Herbert Hoover.

ROSS AND HINES FIGHT OVER JOBS

Harrisburg, Aug. 9.—(AP)—A patronage row over 81 employees who process benefit payment checks in the Unemployment Compensation Bureau flared up today between State Treasurer E. Clair Ross and Lewis G. Hines, secretary of labor and industry.

Hines asked the Federal Social Security board for authority to dismiss the employees, appointed by Ross, a Democrat, and replace them with civil service workers.

"The law says that anybody who has any connection with this service should be appointed by the secretary of labor and industry," said Hines, a Republican.

These employees are treasury employees the same as any other treasury appointees," Ross declared. He said the Social Security Board has declined to take any action in the controversy, contending it is up to state authorities to determine under the state unemployment compensation law.

Hines said he already has received a general opinion from Attorney General Claude T. Rusk, holding that the employees who draw the benefit payment checks against the state treasury "are under the jurisdiction of the Department of Labor and Industry."

TREASURY CHIEF WANTS TAX ON EXCESS PROFITS

Secretary Morgenthau, Forecasting $5,700,000,000 Federal Deficit, Urges Congress to Open Another Source of Government Revenue

TALKS TO COMMITTEE

Washington, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Secretary Morgenthau, forecasting a $5,700,000,000 federal deficit this year, urged congress today to open another source of government revenue and provide a "better distribution" of defense costs by enacting an excess profits tax.

An eventual increase in the present $49,000,000,000 federal debt limit to permit more deficit financing was predicted by Morgenthau, while Daniel W. Bell, treasury undersecretary, said that at the present rate of defense expenditures it would be necessary to increase the limit by about $3,000,000,000 next summer unless new taxes were raised.

Appearing before a joint meeting of the House ways and means committee and the Senate finance committee, the treasury chief also proposed prompt action on pending tax legislation because he said it would facilitate execution of defense contracts.

"The national defense program," Morgenthau said, "places upon the duty of reconsidering certain features of the tax structure now, in order to obtain a rapid expansion of production for defense and a better distribution of its cost to the taxpayer."

The excess profits tax has been estimated by experts to yield $200,000,000 to $500,000,000 a year.

The treasury and budget bureau have said that, as of August 5, the treasury faced expenditures of more than $12,000,000,000 in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1941, Morgenthau said. Revenue estimates, he reported, totaled $6,367,000,000 including the new defense taxes recently enacted.

Unless new taxes were enacted, he continued, virtually all of the new $49,000,000,000 federal borrowing power would be exhausted by June 30, 1941.

He also called attention to provisions of the pending excess profits tax bill which would suspend the profit limitations on warplane and warship contracts under the Vinson-Trammell act and authorize manufacturers to speed up amortization, for tax purposes, of new factories built for defense production.

CITIES IN LOUISIANA CALL FOR OUTSIDE AID

Poorer But Wiser After Twelve Years in Office

Hyde Park, N. Y., Aug. 9.—(AP)—President Roosevelt's thumbnail financial and intellectual accounting of his last 12 years in public office is that he is a poorer but a wiser man. Asked today about Republican candidate Wendell Willkie's proposal that high government officials and their relatives be required to file a detailed listing of their personal assets on entering and leaving office, Mr. Roosevelt smiled.

All he had to say, he remarked, was that he was a poorer and wiser man than when he went to Albany as governor of New York in 1928.

Betting Odds 100 to 1 That National Guard Never Would Have to Go Outside Limits of United States or Possessions in Peace Time

STARTING ON TOUR

Hyde Park, N. Y., Aug. 9.—(AP)—President Roosevelt said at a press conference today the betting odds were 100 to 1 that the National Guard never would have to go outside the limits of the United States or its possessions in peace time.

He made that statement in discussing an amendment, defeated before the senate passed a bill to permit him to call out the guard and organized reserves for federal training, which would have limited their service to the continental United States and American possessions.

His remarks were made after a reporter observed that Senator McNary (R-Ore), the Republican vice presidential nominee, had voted for an amendment to the training bill which would have confined guard activities to the continental United States.

While he had only glanced at the papers, Mr. Roosevelt asserted, he understood the amendment would have permitted service in the nation.

PRESIDENT MAY DEDICATE PIKE

Ligonier, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Spurred by the enthusiastic backing of the communities along the 160-mile "all-weather" highway, a Pittsburgh committee renewed efforts today to have President Roosevelt dedicate the $700,000 turnpike "Pride of Pennsylvania" at gala ceremonies on Labor Day.

The president has been highly interested in the streamlined fast-routed Pittsburgh pike from the standpoint of national defense, hoping it might some day become part of a coast-to-coast trunk highway system for speedy motor transportation.

Frank L. Duggan, president of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, told delegates from towns along the pike at a program meeting last night that he was in communication with the White House and would know "within a few days" whether Mr. Roosevelt would attend the September 2 opening and make the dedicatory speech.

Duggan said it was also expected that Governor Arthur H. James would take part in the ceremony, to be held at a point near Bedford, designated as "midway" of the route.

Overwhelming Senate Passage of Measure Authorizing President to Muster National Guard and Army Reserves Emboldens Conscription Advocates to Propose Broader Program Under the Burke-Wadsworth Legislation

RECORD CLOSE VOTE ON RESTRICTIVE CLAUSE

Washington, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Overwhelming Senate passage of the bill authorizing the President to muster the National Guard and army reserves emboldened conscription advocates today to propose a broader registration program under the Burke-Wadsworth compulsory service measure.

Just before the Senate began its momentous debate on the conscription issue, Senator Burke (D-Neb.) disclosed that he had drafted an amendment calling for registration of all men from 21 through 43. The bill approved by the military committee fixed the ages at 21 to 30, inclusive.

Burke said the Senate's 71 to 7 vote yesterday in favor of legislation which could put the Guard and Reserves into active service was encouraging to those who want to increase the number of men subject to possible conscription.

His proposed change, he explained, would make 24,000,000 men subject to registration, instead of the 12,000,000 contemplated in the committee-approved measure. In either case only those from 21 through 30 would be liable for immediate draft and military duty.

The Guard-Reserve bill was sent to the House with only minor changes. Seven senators voted against passage: Burke (D-SD), Donahue (D-Iowa), Gillette (D-Iowa), Holt (D-W.Va.), Danaher (Turn to Page Eleven)

The administration has not chosen the engineer who will make the trip or set definite dates for his tour, but General Frank T. Hines, administrator of veterans' affairs, in a letter to members of the Pennsylvania delegation in congress indicated the study probably would be made in a week or ten days.

General Hines listed these cities for the engineer's tour: Altoona, Harrisburg, Williamsport, Shamokin, Sunbury, Chambersburg, Lewisburg, Carlisle, DuBois, Lock Haven, Punksutawney, Clearfield, Tyrone, Milton, Huntingdon, St.

FURTHER DROP SHOWN IN RELIEF POPULATION

Harrisburg, Aug. 9.—(P)—Continued business improvement for three consecutive months has brought a reduction of 103,000 persons in Pennsylvania's relief population, records of the department of public assistance showed today.

"The reduction is entirely due to economic improvement," said Willard E. Solenberger, chief of public relations in the department.

Solenberger said there are now approximately 1,211,000 persons dependent upon state grants or federal work relief payrolls in Pennsylvania.

MONOPOLISTIC PRACTICES ARE UNDER INQUIRY

New York, Aug. 9.—(P)—A federal grand jury delved deeper today into allegedly monopolistic practices that may stymie the United States preparedness program.

At least ten major industries, some reported to have binding patent agreements with German firms including the Krupp Steel Works, have been under examination for nearly a month, Samuel Isseks, special assistant attorney general, has disclosed.

Involved are patent arrangements said to so bind American war material producers that a "bottleneck" has resulted in the nation's armament program.

Isseks declined to name the industries under investigation but a letter on file in federal court listed producers of machine tools, glass, chemicals, foundry supplies, textiles and fabrics, metal and metal alloy fabrication and road building supplies, plastics and petroleum.

One of the most important phases of the inquiry is the production of magnesium, a metal one third lighter than aluminum and which in alloys is understood to have enabled the Germans to reduce plane weights 20 per cent.

The investigators are seeking to learn why American production of magnesium, comprising 2 to 3 per cent of the earth's surface, was only 2,185 tons in 1938.

FOUR ESCAPE IN STATE COLLEGE PLANE CRASH

State College, Aug. 9.—(P)—Four persons escaped injury late yesterday when a cabin monoplane coming in for landing at the State College air depot field, failed to clear a fence and turned over in a ground loop.

They were Dr. and Mrs. W. Dale Jamison, of Saginaw, Mich.; Dr. Jamison's mother, Mrs. Jane Jamison, and Miss Jean McCoy, both of Grove City. The landing gear, propeller and a wing of the plane were damaged.

NOTIFICATION PLANS REVEALED

Elwood, Ind., Aug. 9.—(P)—The committee in charge made public today the program for notification of Wendell L. Willkie here Aug. 17 of his nomination for president on the Republican ticket.

Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts, national chairman, will make the notification speech. Willkie will accept the nomination in his first major campaign address.

Rep. Charles A. Halleck, of Indiana, who put Willkie's name before the national convention in Philadelphia, will introduce Martin. President-Emeritus William Lowe Bryan of Indiana University, of which Willkie is a graduate, will pray.

The program will begin at 3 p. m., Central Standard Time, and will be broadcast over three networks (NBS, CBS, MBS). Earlier, Willkie will speak briefly from steps of his old high school.

Before the speeches bands will play and John Charles Thomas, operatic baritone, will sing. Comedian Walter O'Keefe will be master of ceremonies at an entertainment the night before.

DEFENSE PROGRAM RETARDED

Secretary of War Stimson and Lewis Compton, Assistant in Navy Department, Inform Congressional Committee Dividend Limitations and Business Uncertainty Over Tax Legislation Are Delaying Production of Planes and Armaments

BOTH INSIST EXCESS PROFITS TAX NEEDED

Washington, Aug. 9.—(P)—Secretary of War Stimson and Lewis Compton, assistant secretary of the navy, told a congressional committee today that profit limitations and business uncertainty over tax legislation had delayed production of airplanes, guns, ships and other vital items of the defense program.

The two testified with regard to an excess profits tax containing various provisions designed to speed armament manufacture. One section would permit the cost of plant expansion to be deducted from taxes over a five year period. Another would lift present profit limitations imposed by the Vinson-Trammell act.

Stimson testified that the army had been able to sign contracts for only 33 of 4,000 planes appropriated for during June, "chiefly" because of uncertainties over tax legislation. Nor was the airplane industry unique in this regard, he said, declaring the problem of expansion applied also to makers of tanks, artillery, ammunition and the like.

Compton said that the navy had one contract involving $10,000,000 for five-inch guns for six new vessels. But the six sub-contractors involved refused to accept business under the eight per cent profit limitation of the Vinson-Trammell act.

There was an aircraft company which made a contract on the act's 12 per cent profit limitation for planes but before the contract was awarded the profit was cut to eight per cent and subcontractors refused to do the work, Compton said.

Citing other examples of Navy Department handicaps, Compton said that one firm which completed 100 airplanes a month had increased its production to 700 by expansion privately financed.

MID-AIR ATTACK ON STEWARDESS IS UNEXPLAINED

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 9.—(P)—An American Airlines investigator renewed an inquiry today into the reported mid-air juggling of Rosemary Griffith, 24-year-old Flushing, N. Y., stewardess, after members of the sky liners' crew failed to shed light on the incident.

Miss Griffith told a local official of the company yesterday that she was felled in the women's lounge of the west-bound plane by an unidentified assailant as the plane neared Nashville Wednesday night.

Roy Mitchell, assistant operations manager, said in Memphis after a talk with Captain James Stroud, flight officer, and other crew members, that none could disclose why Miss Griffith swallowed a key to the plane's mail compartment or how she was knocked unconscious.

Ambassador Cudahy Publicly Scolded

Washington, Aug. 9.—(P)—John Cudahy, American ambassador to Belgium, was reprimanded publicly by the State Department today for his press interview in London on Belgian food conditions and other aspects of the German occupation of that country.

Sumner Welles, acting secretary of state, reading a formal statement at his press conference, said that Cudahy, by direction of President Roosevelt had been requested to return to the United States immediately for consultation.

TREASURY CHIEF WANTS TAX ON EXCESS PROFITS

Secretary Morgenthau, Forecasting $5,700,000,000 Federal Deficit, Urges Congress to Open Another Source of Government Revenue

TALKS TO COMMITTEE

Washington, Aug. 9.—(P)—Secretary Morgenthau, forecasting a $5,700,000,000 federal deficit, urged congress today to open another source of government revenue and provide a "better distribution" of defense costs by enacting an excess profits tax.

An eventual increase in the present $49,000,000,000 federal debt limit to permit more deficit financing was predicted by Morgenthau, while Daniel W. Bell, treasury undersecretary, said that at the present rate of defense expenditures it would be necessary to increase the limit by about $9,000,000,000 next summer unless new taxes were raised.

Appearing before a joint meeting of the House ways and means committee and the Senate finance committee, the treasury chief also proposed prompt action on pending tax legislation because he said it would facilitate execution of defense contracts.

"The national defense program," Morgenthau said, "places upon us the duty of reconsidering certain features of the tax structure now, in order to obtain a rapid expansion of production for defense and a better distribution of its cost to the taxpayer."

The excess profits tax has been estimated by experts to yield $200,000,000 to $500,000,000 a year.

The treasury and budget bureau have calculated that, as of August 5, the treasury faced expenditures of more than $12,000,000,000 in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1941, Morgenthau said. Revenue estimates he reported totaled $6,367,000,000 including the new defense taxes recently enacted.

Unless new taxes were enacted, he continued, virtually all of the new $49,000,000,000 federal borrowing power would be exhausted by June 30, 1941.

He also called attention to provisions of the pending excess profits tax bill which would suspend the profit limitations on warplane and warship contracts under the Vinson-Trammell act and authorize manufacturers to speed up amortization, for tax purposes, of new factories built for defense production.

HOOVER AND WILLKIE TO HOLD CONFERENCE

Colorado Springs, Aug. 9.—(P)—Wendell L. Willkie is completing arrangements for a weekend conference with former President Herbert Hoover.

The Republican presidential nominee is expected to arrive at Colorado Springs tomorrow or Sunday.

Willkie said he expects to have his acceptance address, to be delivered Aug. 17 in Elwood, Ind., in final form by the end of the week.

At yesterday's press conference, the candidate expressed the opinion that half the funds spent in political campaigns is "wasted money."

ROSS AND HINES FIGHT OVER JOBS

Harrisburg, Aug. 9.—(P)—A patronage row over 81 employees who process benefit payment checks in the Unemployment Compensation Bureau flared up today between State Treasurer F. Clair Ross and Lewis G. Hines, secretary of labor and industry.

Hines asked the Federal Social Security board for authority to dismiss the employees, appointed by Ross, a Democrat, and replace them with civil service workers.

"The law says that anybody who has any connection with this service should be appointed by the secretary of labor and industry," said Hines, a Republican.

"These employees are treasury employees the same as any other treasury appointees," Ross declared. He said the Social Security board has declined to take any action in the controversy, contending it is up to state authorities to determine under the state unemployment compensation law.

Hines said he already has received a legal opinion from Attorney General Claude T. Reno, holding that the employees who draw the benefit payment checks against the state treasury are under the jurisdiction of the Department of Labor and Industry.

REGISTRATION BILL MAY BE AMENDED TO INCLUDE MEN OF 44

Poorer But Wiser After Twelve Years in Office

Hyde Park, N. Y., Aug. 9.—(P)—President Roosevelt's thumbnail financial and intellectual accounting of his last 12 years in public office is that he is a poorer but a wiser man.

Asked today about Republican candidate Wendell Willkie's proposal that high government officials and their relatives be required to file a detailed listing of their personal assets on entering and leaving office, Mr. Roosevelt smiled.

All he had to say, he remarked, was that he was a poorer and wiser man than when he went to Albany as governor of New York in 1928.

LEGISLATION IS DISCUSSED BY ROOSEVELT

Betting Odds 100 to 1 That National Guard Never Would Have to Go Outside Limits of United States or Possessions in Peace Time

Hyde Park, N. Y., Aug. 9.—(P)—President Roosevelt said at a press conference today the betting odds were 100 to 1 that the National Guard never would have to go outside the limits of the United States or its possessions in peace time.

He made that statement in discussing an amendment, defeated before the senate passed a bill to permit him to call out the guard and organized reserves for federal training, which would have limited their service to the continental United States and American possessions.

His remarks were made after a reporter observed that Senator McNary (R-Ore.), the Republican vice presidential nominee, had voted for an amendment to the training bill which would have confined guard activities to the continental United States.

While he had only glanced at the papers, Mr. Roosevelt asserted, he understood the amendment would have permitted service in the nation's possessions.

Cities in Louisiana Call for Outside Aid

Crowley, La., Aug. 9.—(P)—Southwest Louisiana cities, in some instances completely flooded by nearly 20 inches of continuous rain in the past 48 hours, called today for outside aid.

The business section of Crowley, a city of 10,000 population in the heart of the Louisiana rice belt, was under 15 to 24 inches of water.

Lafayette, a city of about 20,000 population, reported an official rainfall of 19.63 inches for the past 24 hours ending at 7 a. m. today with a slight rain continuing.

Social Precedent Is Set At Reception For Duke and Duchess After Arrival in Bermuda

Hamilton, Bermuda, Aug. 9.—(P)—British censors, acting in accordance with wartime regulations, held for examination today 120 of the 700 bags of mail carried by the American export liner Excalibur, which made a special stop to land the Duke and Duchess of Windsor here yesterday.

The mail will be forwarded to New York aboard a later vessel. Meanwhile the royal couple, after spending their first night at government house, planned a shopping trip in Hamilton this afternoon. Tonight they will be given a private dinner by the governor of this island colony, Maj.-Gen. Denis Kirwan Bernard.

Before the Windsors go on to Nassau, where the Duke will be governor and commander-in-chief, he will inspect the troops garrisoned at Bermuda, a small part of which he reviewed yesterday during the reception at the Royal Yacht Club.

It was at this reception that social precedent was set by the governor's sister, Mrs. Hastings Brooke, and Admiral Purvis' wife, who curtsied to the Duke but greeted his American-born Duchess with friendly bows.

Hamilton had three principal topics of conversation—the Duke's friendly, informal manner and youthful appearance; the Duchess' simplicity and the Duke's four-door sedan, which was put ashore from the Excalibur together with a sports trailer and enough luggage to fill two trucks.

PRESIDENT MAY DEDICATE PIKE

Ligonier, Aug. 9.—(P)—Spurred by the enthusiastic backing of the communities along the 180-mile "all-weather" highway, a Pittsburgh committee renewed efforts today to have President Roosevelt dedicate the $70,000,000 turnpike—"pride of Pennsylvania"—at gala ceremonies on Labor Day.

The president has been highly interested in the streamlined Harrisburg-Pittsburgh pike from the standpoint of national defense, hoping it might some day become part of a coast-to-coast trunk highway system for speedy motor transportation.

Frank L. Duggan, president of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, told delegates from towns along the pike at a program meeting last night that he was in communication with the White House and would know "within a few days" whether Mr. Roosevelt would attend the September 2 opening and make the dedicatory speech.

Duggan said it was also expected that Governor Arthur H. James would take part in the ceremony, to be held at a point near Bedford, designated as "midway" of the route.

COUNTY RELIEF BOARD PLEASSED WITH MEETING

The Warren County Board of Public Assistance held a public meeting in the Grange Hall at West Spring Creek on Tuesday evening, which was attended by a representative group of Spring Creek township citizens, as well as members of the county administrative staff.

This meeting was in the nature of an experiment which attempted to achieve greater public appreciation of and responsibility for the work of the Department of Public Assistance. Following introduction of the board and various members of the staff, Board Chairman Leonard C. Swanson gave a very interesting and informative talk outlining the scope and policies of the assistance program. Other talks by the works assignment officer and district visitor outlined the works program and family responsibility policy and the meeting was then opened to general discussion under the leadership of the local executive director. This proved to be a most successful innovation and the results achieved should be of lasting benefit to the citizens of Spring Creek as well as to the board.

So well has this experiment been received that the board has decided to extend the policy throughout the county and it is now planned to hold a similar meeting each month until all districts in the county have been brought into contact with and participation in this program.

Randolph Scott and Kay Francis in Exciting Adventure Hit

"WHEN THE DALTONS RODE"

At the Library Theatre Friday and Saturday

"When the Daltons Rode," Universal's saga of frontier America, in the days of the celebrated Dalton gang, comes to the Library Theatre Friday and Saturday, with Randolph Scott and Kay Francis heading a distinguished cast.

Based on the exciting book of the same name, the film traces the career of the Dalton boys as ranch owners who are led into spectacular crime by the persecutions of a land company.

The story reaches a climax with the historic raid on Coffeyville, Kan., in 1892, when the gang was destroyed while staging the old west's only double bank robbery.

Miss Francis, portraying the first action role of her career, appears as the winsome telegraph operator of Coffeyville, a character based on the real-life sweetheart of one of the Daltons. Scott plays a frontier lawyer who befriends the Daltons and helps bring the land company agents to justice.

The four Daltons are portrayed by Brian Donlevy, Broderick Crawford, Stuart Erwin and Frank Albertson, while Andy Devine has what has been described as one of his best roles as the Dalton's girl-chasing ranch hand who joins the gang in their maraudings.

Randolph Scott and Kay Francis in Exciting Adventure Hit

"WHEN THE DALTONS RODE"

At the Library Theatre Friday and Saturday"When the Daltons Rode," Universal's saga of frontier America, in the days of the celebrated Dalton gang, comes to the Library Theatre Friday and Saturday, with Randolph Scott and Kay Francis heading a distinguished cast.Based on the exciting book of the same name, the film traces the career of the Dalton boys as ranch owners who are led into spectacular crime by the persecutions of a land company.

The story reaches a climax with the historic raid on Coffeyville, Kan., in 1892, when the gang was destroyed while staging the old west's only double bank robbery.
Miss Francis, portraying the first action role of her career, appears as the winsome telegraph operator of Coffeyville, a character based on the real-life sweetheart of one of the Daltons. Scott plays a frontier lawyer who befriends the Daltons and helps bring the land company agents to justice.

The four Daltons are portrayed by Brian Donlevy, Broderick Crawford, Stuart Erwin and Frank Albertson, while Andy Devine has what has been described as one of his best roles as the Dalton's girl-chasing ranch hand who joins the gang in their maraudings.

COUNTY RELIEF
BOARD PLEASSED WITH MEETING

The Warren County Board of Public Assistance held a public meeting in the Grange Hall at West Spring Creek on Tuesday evening, which was attended by a representative group of Spring Creek township citizens, as well as members of the county administrative staff.

This meeting was in the nature of an experiment which attempted to achieve greater public appreciation of and responsibility for the work of the Department of Public Assistance. Following introduction of the board and various members of the staff, Board Chairman Leonard G. Swanson gave a very interesting and informative talk outlining the scope and policies of the assistance program. Other talks by the works assignment officer and district visitor outlined the works program and family responsibility policy and the meeting was then opened to general discussion under the leadership of the local executive director. This proved to be a most successful innovation and the results achieved should be of lasting benefit to the citizens of Spring Creek as well as to the board.

So well has this experiment been received that the board has decided to extend the policy throughout the county and it is now planned to hold a similar meeting each month until all districts in the county have been brought into contact with and participation in this program.

ELECTRICITY OFF

The borough was without electricity for a short time late yesterday when a piece of high voltage equipment in the yard at the Edison Electric Company failed, causing a slight fire in the oil used to shut off the current to prevent a spread of the fire to other equipment. The service was resumed as soon as possible, causing only slight inconvenience.

A record number of parents and children enjoyed the annual doll show contest held at the various borough playgrounds Wednesday and Thursday. The finals were held at Beatty playground yesterday afternoon, attracting much interest and drawing a large number of parents and kiddies.

Those participating in yesterday's competition at the Beatty playground were winners in the neighborhood playground contests, conducted Wednesday.

Winners in the final contest were:

Best character doll, Ella Cinder, entered by Betty Jean Kolpien, Beatty.

Largest doll, big baby doll entered by Patty Samuelson, Beatty.

Judges for the final contest were Miss Emily Eaton, Miss Frances
Grosch and Miss Lorraine Harkless.

Approximately 300 dolls of every description were entered in the neighborhood contests Wednesday, the largest number ever entered in the annual affair. Among the dolls entered were some of the most unusual types, some being very old and priceless. Others were made of china and wax, while some were of cloth and wood. The hand-made doll outfits, consisting of hat, dress, panties and sleeping garments, were most unusual and exceptionally well made. All of these outfits were made by the contestants themselves.

Every year the playground doll show contest has been steadily growing and it is hoped by officials that next year's contest will be even larger. In past years the dolls were judged for six different qualifications, but this year there were nine qualifications on which the dolls were judged.

"Not only were the children of the various homes, institutions and entertained," he said, "but a large sum will be realized for the Zem

TAKES OWN LIFE
BY HANGING IN BARN ON FARM

Ceremonies to Mark Inauguration
Of Air Mail Pick-up Service On Monday By All American Aviation

The body of Eber Holcomb, 70, was found hanging in the barn on his farm, located on the Chandler's Valley-Sugar Grove road, near the junction with the Mathews Run road in Sugar Grove township, about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Holcomb, who lived alone on his farm, had not been seen since Wednesday evening and it is believed he took his own life about dusk Wednesday night.

Neighbors yesterday noticed his absence from his farm and started a search. Lloyd Swanson, a neighbor, found the body. He first notified Justice of the Peace R. L. Samuelson, of Chandler's Valley, of his discovery. Samuelson called Coroner Ed C. Lowrey.

The coroner issued a certificate of death by suicide, due to despondency over ill health. He permitted the body to be removed to the Schoonover Funeral Home in Sugar Grove.

Neighbors told Coroner Lowrey that during the past several months, Holcomb had sold off all his livestock, although he had planted the usual farm crops.

The only survivors, as far as could be learned, are cousins in Bear Lake and Sinclairville, N. Y. Holcomb had lived on the farm most of his life.

Funeral services for Mr. Holcomb will be held from the Schoonover Funeral Home at 10:30 a. m. tomorrow at 1 o'clock, standard time. Interment will be in Five Points cemetery.

TOWNSEND CLUB

Townsend Club No. 6, of Starbrook, will meet Monday evening on the lawn of the Diehl home. Pictures and refreshments will be provided and all are invited.

COURT ON WEDNESDAY

There will be a session of court next Wednesday morning, August 14. Judge D. U. Arid, who is much improved after a short illness, is expected to preside.

SUFFERS HEAD INJURY

Miss Doris Rowland, 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Margaret Rowland, Russell street, was admitted to the Warren General Hospital on Wednesday for x-ray pictures and observation of injuries she received while swimming at Warren-Penn Park. It is reported the young lady struck her head on a rock, the extent of the injury not having been determined as yet.

BAND AT CELEBRON

The management of Celebron Park announces today that the Knox Glass Associates Band of 250 pieces will be heard in a social concert at the park on Sunday afternoon. The program, presented under the direction of Newton Hoffman, will include patriotic selections, marches, overtures, a concert solo by Jessie F. Brown, a clarinet trio and many popular melodies.

TO HAVE HEARING

Charles H. Schambers, 532 Crescent Park, will be arraigned this afternoon before Justice of the Peace T. Richard Evans on a charge of drunken driving, according to local police, following an accident on the South Side at 8:35 o'clock last evening. The arresting officer, charged that Schambers struck a parked car belonging to A. J. Lucia, Crescent Park, and continued on without stopping.

Thiele was operating the tractor letting down the pole to dismantle the rig. It is thought that the brake on the winch used in lowering the pole was either faulty or had been loose before the guy wire was released. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of the victim's sister, Mrs. Earl Haglund, of Costello.

and towns to which service will be started Monday were on the experimental routes so that the new lines were virtually ready for operation when they were authorized by the Civil Aeronautics Board.

The body of Eber Holcomb, 70, was found hanging in the barn on his farm, located on the Chancellors Valley-Sugar Grove road, near the junction with the Mathews Run road in Sugar Grove township, about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Holcomb, who lived alone on his farm, had not been seen since Wednesday evening and it is believed he took his own life about dusk Wednesday night.

Neighbors yesterday noticed his absence from his farm and started a search. Lloyd Swanson, a neighbor, found the body. He first notified Justice of the Peace R. L. Samuelson, of Chancellors Valley, of his discovery. Samuelson called Coroner Ed C. Lowrey.

The coroner issued a certificate of death by suicide, due to despondency over ill health. He permitted the body to be removed to the Schooner Funeral Home in Sugar Grove.

Neighbors told Coroner Lowrey that during the past several months, Holcomb had sold off all his livestock, although he had planted the usual farm crops.

The only survivors, as far as could be learned, are cousins in Bear Lake and Sinclairville, N. Y. Holcomb had lived on the farm most of his life.

Funeral services for Mr. Holcomb will be held from the Schooner Funeral Home tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock, standard time. Interment will be in Five Points cemetery.

Ceremonies to Mark Inauguration Of Air Mail Pick-up Service On Monday By All American Aviation

RECORD NUMBER ATTEND OUTING FOR PATIENTS

Appropriate ceremonies which will be attended by officials of the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Post Office Department, will be held Monday at Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, Jamestown, N. Y., and Huntington, W. Va., to mark the inauguration of service over three of the five permanent air pick-up routes recently authorized by the Civil Aeronautics Board. These three routes will bring direct air service daily to 56 communities in Pennsylvania, 21 in West Virginia, 4 in Delaware and 2 in New York.

At Pittsburgh which will be the hub of the new air pick-up system, the service will be inaugurated by S. A. Bodkin, postmaster at Pittsburgh, who will put the first mail cargo aboard the three pick-up planes that will leave at ten o'clock in the morning bound for Jamestown, N. Y., Huntington, W. Va., and Philadelphia via Harrisburg. Edward Warner, vice chairman of the Civil Aeronautics Board, and Smith W. Purdum, newly appointed second assistant postmaster general, who is in charge of the air mail, have been invited to attend, as well as other officials of the C. A. B. and Post Office Department.

At Philadelphia, westbound service to Pittsburgh via Harrisburg will be inaugurated by Postmaster Joseph F. Gallagher, who will place the mail aboard the first ship that will leave Philadelphia airport at 9:30 a. m. The pick-up plane will be piloted by Holger Hoiris, of Faulkland, Del., who flew the first paid passenger across the Atlantic. The second man in the plane handling the pick-up will be Charles Rodgers, of Charlevoix, Pa.

At Harrisburg, which will be the layover point for the planes on the Pittsburgh-Philadelphia route, Postmaster Leo A. Warner will officially dispatch the first eastbound flight to Philadelphia at 3:25 p. m., and the first westbound flight at 4:21 p. m.

At Huntington, W. Va., Postmaster J. W. Dingess will dispatch the mail on the first northbound flight to Pittsburgh at 3:08 p. m.

Following the Pittsburgh ceremony, Richard C. du Pont, president of All American Aviation, Inc., which will operate the pick-up routes, will fly a group of Civil Aeronautics Board and Post Office Department officials to Jamestown, N. Y., where the establishment of the service will be observed by a celebration at the city's new airport. The plane will follow the pick-up ship on its inaugural flight to give the government officials an opportunity to watch the operation from the air. The pick-up plane will arrive at Jamestown at 11:37 a. m. and depart for Pittsburgh at 4:23 p. m. The pilot on the first trip will be Norman Rintoul, of Morgantown, W. Va., and the pick-up man will be A. G. Haller of Pittsburgh.

On the first eastbound flight out of Pittsburgh for Philadelphia, the pilot will be Camille Vinet, former director of aeronautics of the state of Pennsylvania. The pick-up man will be Delton R. Osborne, of Wilmington. Raymond Elder, of Pittsburgh, will pilot the inaugural trip to Huntington. His pick-up operator will be William Burkhardt, of Martinsburg, W. Va.

Other pick-up pilots are T. T. Kinchelee, of Sturgis, Mich., and A. M. Banks. Another pick-up operator is Victor Yesulaities, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa. They will get into action on Tuesday. All of the flying personnel, with the exception of Banks, are veterans of the pick-up service that was operated by All American on an experimental basis under the supervision of the Post Office Department. The company has held the organization intact since the experimental service was suspended last May after a year's operation when the company's air mail contracts expired.

Operations on the other two pick-up routes which extend between Pittsburgh and Williamsport and Pittsburgh and Huntington via the Ohio river valley will begin just as soon as the ground stations are installed and the service authorized by the Post Office Department. Most of the cities

A record group of 851 men attended the annual male patients' picnic at the Warren State Hospital yesterday afternoon and enjoyed the various events which were conducted by members of the hospital staff.

The outing was held on the hospital baseball field. Various patient groups participated in sports of all kinds during the afternoon and all enjoyed the picnic supper which was served in cafeteria style.

A feature of the afternoon was the appearance of the Russell High School band under the direction of Byron Swanson.

Dr. Robert H. Israel, hospital superintendent, declared the outing to be one of the most successful of its kind ever held.

BAHAMANS PUZZLED

Now that the Duke of Windsor and his American-born wife have arrived in Bermuda enroute to their new home at Nassau, Bahamas, residents of the little island dominion are trying to guess why the former British ruler has been sent there as governor, with many speculating that Britain may be planning to unify all her West Indian possessions.

But they see obstacles ahead for any plan to put the eleven British colonies of the area under one administrator. Yet, they believe there must be some deep, basic reason why the former ruler of 500,000-000 subjects was designated to govern a mere 68,000 residents of one minor colony.

Speculation turns to unification and dominion status for the British West Indies because the formal announcement says the Duke would go to the Bahamas as "governor-general," a title customarily reserved for the administrators of dominions, such as Canada, South Africa and Australia. The simpler term "governor" has been used for the chief executive of the Bahamas and other colonies.

In Nassau it is said officials in a flurry of excitement, felt the British colonial office would not use the title by accident. They conjectured that a new dominion might be contemplated, composed of the Bahamas, Bermuda, Barbados, Jamaica, Trinidad and Tobago, the Windward Islands, the Leeward Islands, British Guiana and British Honduras. It would have more than 3,000,000 inhabitants and would invest the duke's new office with added importance.

In Nassau officials hold that such a dominion would be unwieldy to govern. Even among the twenty inhabited islands of the Bahama group it is asserted, varied dialects and habits make little real unity possible. This condition would be multiplied by addition of the other islands.

On one thing many are agreed—that the Duke and his Baltimore Duchess have been designated to do a job of super-salesmanship with the United States.

NON-ALCOHOLIC NAZISM

The fellow who said that Nazism was just Kaiserism with bad manners may have to revise his definition. Nazism bids fair to become Kaiserism without beer.

A rising popular movement in Germany is demanding that a new non-alcoholic "people's drink" be devised which will be a substitute for beer. It seems a good enough idea. The United States, for instance, has an infinite variety of such soft drinks. A man can take his choice not only between beer and a soft drink, but between an infinite variety of beers and an infinite variety of soft drinks. The one which, in the long run, a man comes to like, gets his nickel.

Question: Can a state sit down in cold blood, devise a new soft drink, decree that this is the "people's drink," and make people like it? Offhand we'd say no.

But some fearful and wonderful things have been done in Germany of late, and maybe they can make it stick. When will the "people's drink" be along? Oh, probably about the same time as the "people's auto" on which patient Germans have been making payments for several years.

GUARD MOBILIZATION BILL

Here are the main provisions of the National Guard mobilization bill approved by the Senate late yesterday:

The president could call out National Guardsmen and Army Reserves for a year's active duty—the emergency power expiring June 30, 1942.

The Guard could be sent anywhere in the Western Hemisphere, American possessions, or the Philippines.

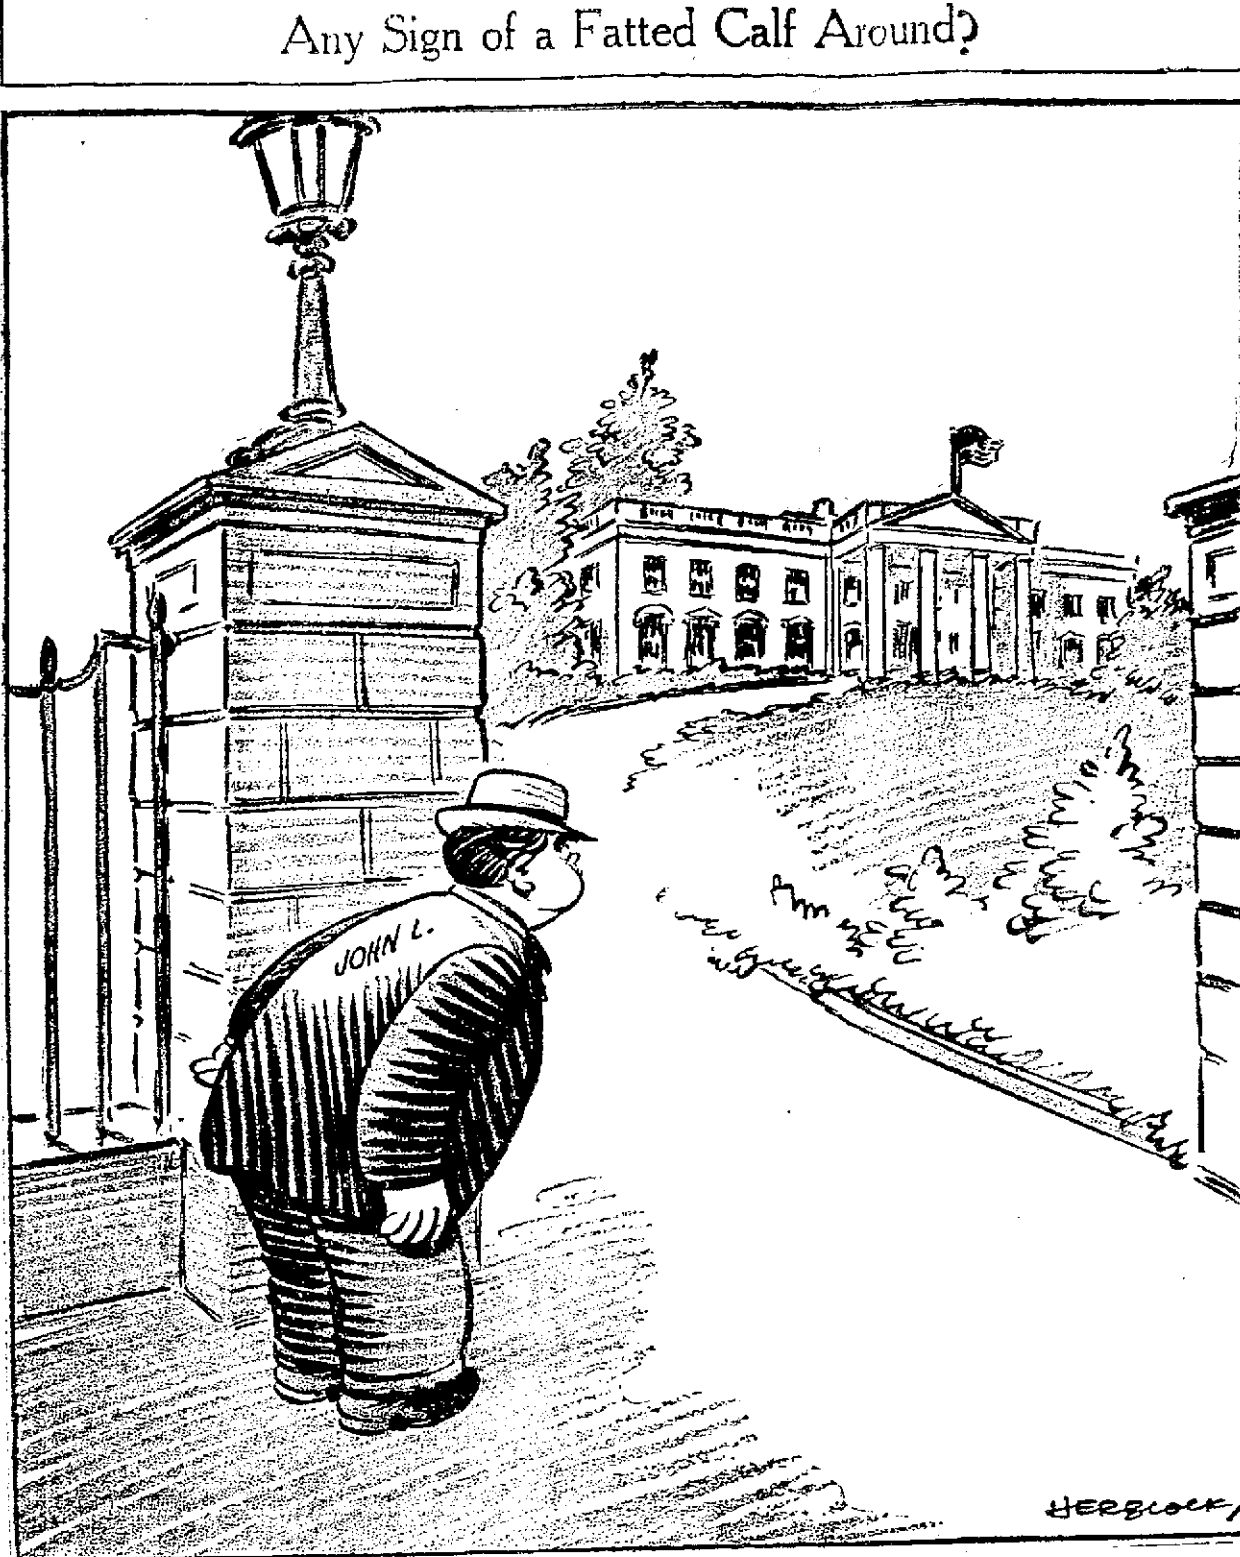

Persons subject to call who have wives or children dependent on their earnings could resign within twenty days after bill's passage.

Employers who refused to rehire militiamen after their return to civilian life would be subject to prosecution under the Wagner Act.

Men called into training would be guaranteed debt relief similar to that extended American soldiers in the World War.

A Washington Daybook

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Capital talk:
In recent weeks, no man has so covered himself with what passes for success in diplomacy as Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

When the conference was called, the capital was full of skepticism. These Pan-American conferences always had been sessions of sound and fury signifying nothing much and this, everyone said, was going to be just another one. The economic situation was too full of antagonistic selfish interests. As for the Monroe Doctrine, that always had been the United States' own baby.

A United Front

THAT'S the way talk ran around here before the assemblage of the delegates of the 21 American nations at Havana. Secretary Hull arrived on the scene and went to work.

One of the men who was at the conference said: "No man worked harder than he. No man was more patient, more tolerant, more deeply solicitous of the wishes and views and attitudes of the other delegations and he it said also that no man enjoyed more esteem."

Those are attributes of statesmanship and with those attributes Hull molded the conference into a united front.
True it is that Argentina is a little cool to the whole business and its congress may not ratify that "act of Havana," but that does not keep official Washington from showering Hull with such phrases as "the crowning achievement of your long and illustrious career."

Paring Budgets.

THE talk continues to circulate about Wendell L. Willkie and President Roosevelt getting together for conferences on vital matters in the foreign situation. But hard-headed politicians argue that the Republicans would be against it because it would shoot holes in their campaign contention that the President is leading us into war. The Democrats would be against it because they are taking all the responsibility for our foreign policy and will continue to do so through those vital days ahead (until next January at least, even if the election goes against them) and that there should be no question of sharing the credit, if any.

In other words, if the political observers are right, you can look for no further coalition or united front from either of the parties until after November, if then.
With all the billions being spent by the government here now, there's scarcely a department that isn't sweating over economies. At the insistence of the President and the budget director, they are cutting from $250,000,000 to $400,000,000 of current expenses. What's worrying the rank and file of government workers is whether salary cuts will get into the economy drive too. The President says not if he can help it.

Malta Caught in Middle Of Mediterranean War

ITALIAN air attacks on British naval bases at Malta bring 1940's brand of war to the little Mediterranean island that has been the scene of fighting since the Roman Empire. One of the chief targets of Italian bombers was Valletta harbor, pictured on the 1937 Coronation issue above.

Colonized by the Phoenicians in the seventh century B. C., Malta passed under control of Rome and Constantinople. In 1090 Normans ousted the Arabs, introduced feudalism.

The Knights of St. John established their order at Malta in 1530, and in 1565 successfully defended the island against Mohammedans. This great siege of Malta checked the advance of Mohammedan power in southern and western Europe.

Britain seized the island in 1814 with the help of the Maltese. During the World War the island was an important base for naval operations.

BAHAMANS PUZZLED

Now that the Duke of Windsor and his American-born wife have arrived in Bermuda enroute to their new home at Nassau, Bahamas, residents of the little island dominion are trying to guess why the former British ruler has been sent there as governor, with many speculating that Britain may be planning to unify all her West Indian possessions.

But they see obstacles ahead for any plan to put the eleven British colonies of the area under one administrator. Yet, they believe there must be some deep, basic reason why the former ruler of 500,000,000 subjects was designated to govern a mere 68,000 residents of one minor colony.

Speculation turns to unification and dominion status for the British West Indies because the formal announcement says the Duke would go to the Bahamas as "governor-general," a title customarily reserved for the administrators of dominions, such as Canada, South Africa and Australia. The simpler term "governor" has been used for the chief executive of the Bahamas and other colonies.

In Nassau it is said officials in a flurry of excitement, felt the British colonial office would not use the title by accident. They conjectured that a new dominion might be contemplated, composed of the Bahamas, Bermuda, Barbados, Jamaica, Trinidad and Tobago, the Windward Islands, the Leeward Islands, British Guiana and British Honduras. It would have more than 3,000,000 inhabitants and would invest the duke's new office with added importance.

In Nassau officials hold that such a dominion would be unwieldy to govern. Even among the twenty inhabited islands of the Bahama group it is asserted, varied dialects and habits make little real unity possible. This condition would be multiplied by addition of the other islands.

On one thing many are agreed—that the Duke and his Baltimore Duchess have been designated to do a job of super-salesmanship with the United States.

NON-ALCOHOLIC NAZISM

The fellow who said that Nazism was just Kaiserism with bad manners may have to revise his definition. Nazism bids fair to become Kaiserism without beer.

A rising popular movement in Germany is demanding that a new non-alcoholic "people's drink" be devised which will be a substitute for beer. It seems a good enough idea. The United States, for instance, has an infinite variety of such soft drinks. A man can take his choice not only between beer and a soft drink, but between an infinite variety of beers and an infinite variety of soft drinks. The one which, in the long run, a man comes to like, gets his nickel.

Question: Can a state sit down in cold blood, devise a new soft drink, decree that this is the "people's drink," and make people like it? Offhand we'd say no.

But some fearful and wonderful things have been done in Germany of late, and maybe they can make it stick. When will the "people's drink" be along? Oh, probably about the same time as the "people's auto" on which patient Germans have been making payments for several years.

GUARD MOBILIZATION BILL

Here are the main provisions of the National Guard mobilization bill approved by the Senate late yesterday:

The president could call out National Guardsmen and Army Reserves for a year's active duty—the emergency power expiring June 30, 1942.

The Guard could be sent anywhere in the Western Hemisphere, American possessions, or the Philippines.

Persons subject to call who have wives or children dependent on their earnings could resign within twenty days after bill's passage.

Employers who refused to rehire militiamen after their return to civilian life would be subject to prosecution under the Wagner Act.

Men called into training would be guaranteed debt relief similar to that extended American soldiers in the World War.

Any Sign of a Fatted Calf Around?

A Washington Daybook

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—Capital talk:

In recent weeks, no man has so covered himself with what passes for success in diplomacy as Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

When the conference was called, the capital was full of skepticism. These Pan-American conferences always had been sessions of sound and fury signifying nothing much and this, everyone said, was going to be just another one. The economic situation was too full of antagonistic selfish interests. As for the Monroe Doctrine, that always had been the United States' own baby.

A United Front

THAT'S the way talk ran around here before the assemblage of the delegates of the 21 American nations at Havana. Secretary Hull arrived on the scene and went to work.

One of the men who was at the conference said: "No man worked harder than he. No man was more patient, more tolerant, more deeply solicitous of the wishes and views and attitudes of the other delegations and he it said also that no man enjoyed more esteem."

Those are attributes of statesmanship and with those attributes Hull molded the conference into a united front. True it is that Argentina is a little cool to the whole business and its congress may not ratify that "act of Havana," but that does not keep official Washington from showering Hull with such phrases as "the crowning achievement of your long and illustrious career."

Paring Budgets.

THE talk continues to circulate about Wendell L. Willkie and President Roosevelt getting together for conferences on vital matters in the foreign situation. But hard-headed politicians argue that the Republicans would be against it because it would shoot holes in their campaign contention that the President is leading us into war. The Democrats would be against it because they are taking all the responsibility for our foreign policy and will continue to do so through these vital days ahead (until next January at least, even if the election goes against them) and that there should be no question of sharing the credit, if any.

In other words, if the political observers are right, you can look for no further coalition or united front from either of the parties until after November, if then. With all the billions being spent by the government here now, there's scarcely a department that isn't sweating over economies. At the insistence of the President and the budget director, they are cutting from $250,000,000 to $400,000,000 off current expenses. What's worrying the rank and file of government workers is whether salary cuts will get into the economy drive too. The President says not if he can help it.

Warren has been fortunate this summer in being free from many of the inconveniences that other towns have had to contend with. There has been practically no disease due to any defective water or food supply in spite of the arid situation.

Two large barns and other out-buildings on the J. P. Weller farm at Starbuck were totally destroyed by fire of unknown origin Sunday afternoon. The blaze caused considerable excitement and at times it appeared that nearby homes and other buildings could not be saved.

Cloudy skies early Sunday marked a sudden change from the long and intense heat wave. The mercury fell from 84 at noon Saturday to 49 Monday morning.

The next to the last week of the Sunset Baseball League play opens with the Carlson Service team sitting safely on top for the present, but not at all certain of remaining there very long.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars band, under the direction of Charles A. Clark, will play a program of light and classical music at the Rouse Hospital this evening.

Malta Caught in Middle Of Mediterranean War

ITALIAN air attacks on British naval bases at Malta bring 1940's brand of war to the little Mediterranean island that has been the scene of fighting since the Roman Empire. One of the chief targets of Italian bombers was Valletta harbor, pictured on the 1937 Coronation issue above. Colonized by the Phoenicians in the seventh century B. C., Malta passed under control of Rome and Constantinople. In 1090 Normans ousted the Arabs, introduced feudalism.

The Knights of St. John established their order at Malta in 1530, and in 1565 successfully defended the island against Mohammedans. This great siege of Malta checked the advance of Mohammedan power in southern and western Europe.

Britain seized the island in 1814 with the help of the Maltese. During the World War the island was an important base for naval operations.

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Every Monday morning a score or so of passersby on Fifth avenue have that thrill-that-comes-once-in-a-lifetime of thinking they are about to witness, or perhaps help frustrate, a big jewel robbery.

At 52nd street and 5th avenue stands the imposing establishment of world-famous Cartier's, jeweler. Cartier's takes no chances with burglars. They have a big, loud, raucous hold-up alarm. They turn into an ear-splitting siren. It goes off every Monday morning at 8 o'clock, wailing forth its message of alarm.

When this happens the passing citizens sprint to the scene, yelling for the cops. Every innocent auto that passes seems to be a gangster's car.

The cops, of course, wade in and take charge. They know the alarm goes off on schedule. But they never take chances. They get there fast, on the off-chance that it just MIGHT be a genuine alarm.

The answer is that Cartier's has this ultra-sensitive alarm set for every week-end. It is so sensitive that, come Monday, it can't even be turned off without emitting a few of its far-reaching shrieks.

BERT LAHR, who came out of the old burlesque wheels which made epic tales of bald-headed drummers back in the late 80's, and in the late 1930's as well, believes burlesque isn't as dead as it is supposed to be. It has taken some bad beatings in recent years, but there are those who will tell you that burlesque can not and will not die, for the simple reason that its situations existed in Greek Comedy 2,000 years ago and will still be making the customers laugh another 2,000 years hence, regardless of whether they call it "burlesque" or any other name.

The current musical, "DuBarry Was a Lady," has aroused a lot of comment because of its familiar old burlesque lines. Many of its quips would bring a nostalgic smile to any burlesque veteran and some of the cracks might even bring a blush. Bert Laahr himself has to blush on occasion, he admits. The tempo of the show, with its mugging and acting is of the Empire and Columbia wheel vintage.

WE ARE always a little startled, and then a little vexed, and finally a little pleased in a malicious sort of way when we read about people saving money in a tin box and then losing that box. It seems to us that in this enlightened age, when bank deposits are insured, those who don't believe in banks and who risk their life savings in a shoe-box under the bed can't be very able citizens. Of course, if a man wants to put his dough in a box, or even in a drain pipe, that's his business. Anyway, for the third time within a month people in New York have bobbed into the news on just such a count. Today comes the story of a man who had $1,700 in a box. He is now pacing the floor and tearing his hair. Somebody made off with the box. His life's savings are gone. He hasn't anything left. The box, he said, was there one minute, and the next it was gone. Just like that. He can't understand it. Up to the present writing, the police haven't been able to do anything, but commiserate with the victim. It certainly is a cruel, cold world.

Chapter 43

Bugle Calls

"AT FIRST I thought the Randy child meant an automobile horn," Gerald went on. "I took her to a big automobile accessory shop and she listened to every horn in the house. She thought it was great sport, but it wasn't like any of those. The horn she heard was pretty, and played tunes.

"I began to see the possibilities. A school of music; an isolated teacher of wind instruments; or simply a crowded neighborhood where there was an amateur tooter. If I could find out what kind of horn it would narrow things down.

"We went to a music store. She listened to saxophones, flutes, clarinets, bass horns, and shook her head. The baby has a good ear, fortunately for us. I was about to give up in despair when a boy scout came in with his scoutmaster to buy a bugle. The boy played mess call on one he was trying out, and it clicked. It was the right tune, she told me in great excitement. Now could she have the ice cream cone? Imagine a millionaire's child who doesn't get enough ice cream cones—pitiful, isn't it?"

I laughed, and after a moment he went on.

"I made her wait a bit, while the scoutmaster took the bugle and played taps. She knew that one, too. I'd about decided I was onto something, but to make sure I asked the scoutmaster if he knew 'The Roast Beef of Old England.' He'd heard it a few times on an English boat and said he'd have a try at it. He did—and the child said she didn't know that tune!

"That clinched it, as far as I was concerned. He played half a dozen calls of the American army and she recognized them all. We had ice cream cones, then I took her home and was at some pains to discover that she had never visited on an army post, nor had any occasion to hear bugle calls. Then I asked her if, sometimes when the bugle was blowing, she had heard a big boom like a giant firecracker, and she said yes.

"Isn't it curious how people who have the use of their eyes forget the value of the other four senses? Almost every kidnaped person is kept blindfolded, and because they can't see they hear things their kidnapers never notice. There was the man who heard the mail plane going over every night—"

He paused apologetically. "Sorry, I didn't mean to deliver a lecture. I just wanted to tell you what led me here. With the operation of the bootmakers and the knowledge and consent of Corps Area Headquarters, I've been traveling about from post to post in this vicinity snooping into matters which did not concern me, hoping to happen on something which did. I've ferreted out some interesting matters—here he paused with a grim chuckle—"but nothing seemed pertinent until I ran into the stolen cars of Fort Michigan.

All Ears

"AND now I must go back a little and tell you another part of the story. I'm not tiring you?"

I assured him hurriedly that he was not tiring me. That I was all ears and please to go on.

"I don't want you to get the idea that I'm handling this case alone. This was simply my angle of it, and in a sense I played in luck. But the rest of the organization is behind me, and because they are it's like a tiger, not a rabbit. A tiger, or a jackal. The beaters were all behind it, and it came my way.

"The ransom bills were old and unmarked. But their serial numbers were taken, naturally. And early in August they began to filter in. A tremendous amount of routine work was done tracking each one down, usually to a harmless shop, or a prosperous, law-abiding citizen who was at a loss to account for his possession of a ransom note. From all over Chicago they began to come in, and at last we began to get a picture of the method.

"A few of the possessors claimed they had made change for a stranger in the elevated station. They differed in their descriptions of the stranger. One said it was a little old man, another an elderly woman. A third described a fat man, another a well-dressed young woman. Allowing for the possibilities of disguise, there must have been at least a couple, man and woman.

"The method was always the same. A prosperous-looking citizen—usually a man—would be accosted apologetically as he left the station—always a busy one—with the story that the ticket seller had refused a twenty-dollar bill, and so on, with the prosperous citizen digging down in the jeans and doing the favor.

"Two of our most astorically elegant operatives began to make the rounds. From station to station and back again, going out, coming in, watching for the little by-play. One rainy night about two weeks ago they came down the elevated steps together, and one of them went into a tobacconist's to make a telephone call. The other was sheltering in the doorway against the rain when he saw a little old man, his hat pulled low over his eyes, come out of a drugstore halfway down the block and run spryly up the steps to the station.

"On a hunch he was never able to explain, the operative followed. A train was just emptying itself as he reached the platform, and the old man, standing in the shadow of a stanchion, was handing a bill to a well-dressed, portly man. The operative pounced, but he wasn't quite quick enough. The fellow ducked into the milling crowd where it was impossible to shoot, and the thunder of the departing train covered the shout of warning. Halfway down the stairs he swung over the rail, dropped into the street and ducked through the milling traffic, darted into an alley and was gone.

"But the operative saw him!"

"He did, yes. The stoop, the thick-lensed glasses, the obviously a disguise. But the operative thinks he would know him again. And remember, we have his fingerprints. Those two things beat the jackal out of his cover to new shelter where, to his undoing, a little girl's memory of a bugle call had already drawn our attention."

"Who Was He?"

"YOU mean—here?"

"I mean here. I was a long time puzzling it out, and I've been a longer time proving what I grew to suspect. There were the charred bills. At first it looked like the end of the road, and that our kidnaper and the ransom money had both gone up in smoke. That was the way it meant to look. Those twenty-five hundred one-dollar bills were a burnt offering to fate. But it didn't work. Bad luck for the murderer. Triple murderer. For of course the man in the car was murdered, too."

"Who was he? Immberman?"

"Immberman turned himself in at Corps Area Headquarters this morning, after he read about the last murder. He admits to having robbed the taxi driver. He was stranded in Chicago without enough money to pay his way back to his post, and he stayed in a rooming house. He was marked AWOL. That was his way out of the difficulty. He says he meant to pay the driver back, anonymously. Then he heard Adam tell you about the insignia. He had missed one, but had no idea where he lost it. That scared him. But when he went to put on his uniform blouse to go back to barracks that afternoon, there was another one gone. And when you saw him buying a pair at the Post Exchange, he decided the only thing for him to do was go AWOL in earnest."

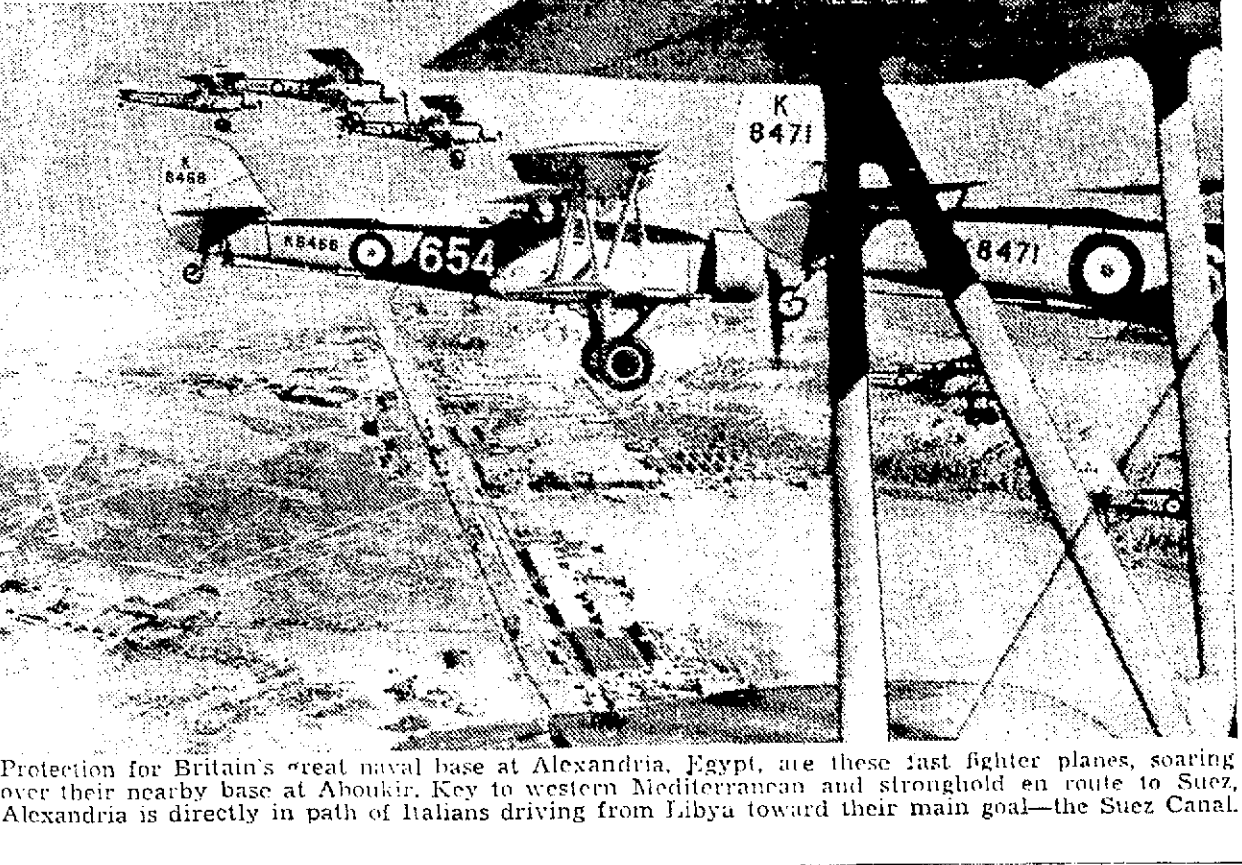

"But if the man in the car wasn't Immberman, who was he?"

He looked at me. "You ought to be able to figure that out for yourself. There's only one person it could have been. There'll be dental records to prove it—there was a plate. Of course, we don't actually need those records. We have also a baggage check which was found under the insole of one of Felicia's shoes."

"Felicia? But you said it was a man! Gerald, are you telling me that she—you don't mean, you can't mean that it wasn't her niece?"

"I think it was, at first. The little girl Julia talked to—they wouldn't have dared let the Randy child talk to anyone. Then Felicia took the niece to Chicago and put her on the train for home, and it was the Randy child she brought back with her. Remember, Julia said they didn't come out to the beach after that, and only took walks in the evening. Some sort of removable dye on the child's hair, and a pair of thick-lensed glasses with bows that were taped with adhesive under her hair, so that she couldn't take them off. The little girl told me about that, herself when I thought to ask her. No wonder she couldn't see very well! Arrgh! There was savagery in the fringed eyes now. "That Bridewell woman will go to the chair, too, if I have my way. She's been groveling—said she agreed to the thing only because her husband was going on with it anyway, and she wanted to be sure the child came to no harm. But that the murders were done without her knowledge—"

America's Card Authority

Here is a hand that created a sensation in Boston a number of years ago. The actual bidding is shown. Milton Unger's six-club bid was a cue-bid, asking North to decide on the final contract—whether it should be six hearts, six spades, or even seven no trump, and also to show his partner that he held the ace of clubs.

But, as frequently happened in the early days of contract, North became a little confused by all the bidding. Thinking, "Well, we're in a slam contract anyway, and that is what we wanted," he passed six clubs. Rather discouraging for South when he saw the dummy! But didn't daunt Unger.

He cashed two diamond tricks, three hearts and three spade tricks, then cross-ruffed hearts and spades, making all four of his trumps safely, and believe it or not, his contract.

Of course, there is a grand slam in no trump, spades, hearts, or diamonds, but you can appreciate that when unusual hands are discussed in Boston, Milton Unger's achievement in making six clubs with only two trumps in each hand is never forgotten.

WHOSE GROCERIES

Harrisburg, Aug. 9.—(P)—More than 12,000 capital grocers and their families took the day off yesterday for an outing at Hershey.

TOWNSEND PLAN

IS SUBJECT OF

SHEFFIELD TALK

Sheffield, Aug. 8. The first in a series of illustrated talks in support of the Townsend plan that is to be presented in Warren county between now and election day in November was given here Tuesday evening at American Legion Park.

The address, sponsored by the Townsend Clubs of the 20th Congressional District, was delivered by Wayne B. Albers and was illustrated with slide pictures and graphs. The projecting machine was operated by Mrs. Albers, wife of the speaker.

Unannounced in advance, the address was heard by only a very small crowd. Of interest was the speaker's announcement that the Townsendites, who already have the support of 101 members of Congress, are, in the 20th district, supporting the candidacy of John Boland Jr., Democrat, of Sharon, for congress.

TWO DOORS BELOW CARVER HOTEL

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Every Monday morning a score or so of passersby on Fifth avenue have that thrill-that-comes-once-in-a-lifetime of thinking they are about to witness, or perhaps help frustrate, a big jewel robbery.

At 52nd street and 5th avenue stands the imposing establishment of world-famous Cartier's, jeweler. Cartier's takes no chances with burglars. They have a big, loud, raucous hold-up alarm. This turns into an ear-splitting siren. It goes off every Monday morning at 8 o'clock, wailing forth its message of alarm.

When this happens the passing citizens sprint to the scene, yelling for the cops. Every innocent auto that passes seems to be a gangster's car.

The cops, of course, wade in and take charge. They know the alarm goes off on schedule. But they never take chances. They get there fast, on the off-chance that it just MIGHT be a genuine alarm.

The answer is that Cartier's has this ultra-sensitive alarm set for every week-end. It is so sensitive that, come Monday, it can't even be turned off without emitting a few of its far-reaching shrieks.

BERT LAHR, who came out of the old burlesque wheels which made epic tales of bald-headed drummers back in the late 80's, and in the late 1930's as well, believes burlesque isn't as dead as it is supposed to be. It has taken some bad beatings in recent years, but there are those who will tell you that burlesque can not and will not die, for the simple reason that its situations existed in Greek Comedy 2,000 years ago and will still be making the customers laugh another 2,000 years hence, regardless of whether they call it "burlesque" or any other name.

The current musical, "DuBarry Was a Lady," has aroused a lot of comment because of its familiar old burlesque lines. Many of its quips would bring a nostalgic smile to any burlesque veteran, and some of the cracks might even bring a blush. Bert Laehr himself has to blush on occasion, he admits. The tempo of the show, with its mugging and acting of the Empire and Columbia wheel vintage.

WE ARE always a little startled, and then a little vexed, and finally a little pleased in a malicious sort of way when we read about people saving money in a tin box and then losing that box. But, as frequently happened in the early days of contract, North became a little confused by all the bidding. Thinking, "Well, we're in a slam contract anyway, and that is what we wanted," he passed six clubs. Rather discouraging for South when he saw the dummy! But didn't daunt Unger.

He cashed two diamond tricks, three hearts and three spade tricks, then cross-ruffed hearts and spades, making all four of his trumps safely, and, believe it or not, his contract.

Of course, there is a grand slam in no trump, spades, hearts, or diamonds, but you can appreciate that when unusual hands are discussed in Boston, Milton Unger's achievement in making six clubs with only two trumps in each hand is never forgotten.

WHOSE GROCERIES

Harrisburg, Aug. 9.—(P)—More than 12,000 capital grocers and their families took the day off yesterday for an outing at Hershey. One puzzling question the arrangements committee had to decide—"Who'll bring the groceries?"

TOWNSEND PLAN IS SUBJECT OF SHEFFIELD TALK

Sheffield, Aug. 8.—The first in a series of illustrated talks in support of the Townsend plan that is to be presented in Warren county between now and election day in November was given here Tuesday evening at American Legion Park.

The address, sponsored by the Townsend Clubs of the 20th Congressional District, was delivered by Wayne B. Albers and was illustrated with slide pictures and graphs. The projecting machine was operated by Mrs. Albers, wife of the speaker.

Unannounced in advance, the address was heard by only a very small crowd. Of interest was the speaker's announcement that the Townsends, who already have the support of 101 members of Congress, are in the 20th district, supporting the candidacy of John Boland Jr., Democrat, of Sharon, for congress.

CLUB MEETS

The regular luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club was held at noon Tuesday in Cederloft Hall with all members except one present and with C. H. Whitaker, president, presiding. The program for the occasion was a song recital presented by Ernest Russell, tenor. The guest vocalist, son of Rev. Ivan Russell, pastor of the Methodist church, sang four songs, concluding with an excellent rendition of the Lord's Prayer. Miss Josephine Benson, club pianist, was his accompanist.

SOCIETY MEETS

Mrs. W. O. Christenson, president, was in charge of the regular August meeting of the Wimpodais Society, held Tuesday afternoon in the parlors of the Methodist church. Pastor Ivan Russell led the devotion and also favored with a vocal solo, "Does Jesus Care." Mrs. Russell, his wife, played the piano accompaniment.

An announcement was made that a silver tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Howard Perry this month on a date to be announced. Lunch was served at Tuesday's meeting by a committee headed by Mrs. Ed Graham and Mrs. John Peterson.

TO RESURFACE STREETS

Resurfacing of several streets in town with a "seal" coat consisting of a one-layer thickness of crushed limestone and a tar-oil binder is scheduled to begin within the next few days, the township road supervisors, in charge of the project, have announced. Streets included in the project are Tionesta, Willow, Mead, North and Oak in the west end of town and School, Radaker, Church and Pickering on the east side.

The contract to supply 270 tons of crushed limestone to be used in the project was awarded to the Buffalo Slag Company, Buffalo, N. Y., and that for the required 8,000 gallons of tar-oil to the McIntosh Company, successor to the Southern Asphalt Company, Richmond, Va.

POSTS BOND

Edwin Peterson, 34, this place, was brought before Justice of the Peace Edwin Anderson here Saturday evening by B. A. Reeder and N. B. Johns of the State Motor Police and was required to post bond in the amount of $300 as guarantee that he will appear before the Dauphin county court when summoned to answer to a charge of issuing a fraudulent check. The check allegedly was issued to the state in payment for motor vehicle license plates.

What Do You Think?

He Likes Our City

A certain man who was in Warren a short time ago has been telling every one of his friends in New York City "there is no town like Warren."

ONE OF OUR THOUGHTFUL POLICEMEN WAS COURTEOUS TO HIM

It is part of this man's business to travel all over this country. I have no doubt but that he will be telling everyone he knows about Warren, thanks to our far-sighted police department.

COLLECTION AT WARREN CHURCH INCREASES FUND

Though previously announced that no further lists of donors to the War Relief Fund of the Warren County Chapter, American Red Cross, would be printed, it was thought by chapter officials that the excellent donations made by members of St. Joseph's church as a special collection on July 14 should be published.

The amount of $85.00 put the War Relief Fund over the $6,000 mark. The total now is $6,085.57. Efforts will be made throughout the balance of the summer and early fall months to raise the $1,973.43 needed to reach the county quota of $8,000.

Again district managers and workers in the borough and in the communities throughout the county who have not made their contributions are asked to forward them at once to headquarters, together with remittances.

Those persons who have not yet contributed to the fund may forward donations by mail to the Warren County Chapter, American Red Cross, or they may continue to leave them with any Warren county bank.

It has obviously been impossible to see each individual and, of course, as in all campaigns, certain districts have been neglected either by the managers of the districts or the workers themselves.

It is felt by local chapter officials that every person in Warren county is desirous of seeing that the quota of $8,000 is reached and for that reason the campaign will be continued—up to that point, at least, when it will not interfere with the annual Roll Call from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day, or until such time as the quota has been reached.

Chapter officials said that the following list absolutely will be the last published as far as individual names are concerned.

HOLLYWOOD SIGHTS & SOUNDS

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD—One of the agreeable things about the majority of night club artists is their ability to take advantage of the jibes, usually amateurish, of hecklers.

There was one of the boys in the Grove the other eve, trying to run competition to the talented Georgia peach, Jane Pickens, and the orchestra maestro, Eddy Duchin. With a few too many inside, the boor was trying to express distaste for the show, although the audience obviously liked it. His remarks were loud and pointed, and drew disapproving shrines.

Miss Pickens, who mimics and sings in a beautifully trained soprano, proceeded blithely through four encores. Later, when Eddy took to the piano and played "Standst" then asked for requests, the show-off yelled "I got a request, the show-off yelled 'I got a request'."

"I just finished it," he protested elaborately. "I'll try again." He did, and pretty soon the heckler departed.

All maesters have to contend more or less with the same sort of situation. Rudy Vallee was until recently the target of much alleged wit, sometimes of fistic attacks. The late Jean Malin, who was an m. c. minus orchestra, used to make the customer launce, "the better to insult 'em in return. But that was part of his act."

Eddy Duchin, an agreeable young man, tells me the other evening's incident was nothing by comparison to another he experienced. In response to his call for requests, a patron shouted, "Give us a march—and we'll all march out." Eddy did the only thing a good turn-of-aside can do. He played "The Stars and Stripes Forever." Everybody stayed to applaud.

Miss Pickens added her heckler to her book of experience. "I learned to take it in, work like this and on the stage," she says. "It's part of our schooling, and I wouldn't miss it for anything."

She'll probably be back for movies, but not now despite RKO and other interest. "This is a vacation," she explained. "I took a precaution of signing for the new Ed Wynn stage show in New York before I came out, so I'd be able to resist offers to stop whenever I want to get away, and just finish 'Tonight or Never' in Ridgefield (Conn.) I don't believe one can get too much experience and background."

MISS PICKENS is the only member of the erstwhile Pickens Sisters trio remaining in the profession. Pati is married to Robert Simmons, the actor. They have a new baby, Helen. Cousin Sammie May is a dancer, who with whom Jane has been solo star the last couple years, soon may be in picture himself. He's mentioned frequently for the prize role in the life-story of George Geishu, who was a friend of his and whom he bore a superficial resemblance. But the elocution is soon he's taking care for his work—"I'll get rid of my New England inflections and make my voice work better and longer."

"IN PINK OF CONDITION AFTER TAKING VENDOL," HE DECLARES

Conewango Tax Collector was at point of giving up before taking famous medicine. Never tried anything so good, he says.

"Before taking a course of Vendol and the little Vendol laxative tablets, I was feeling terrible and many a day thought I couldn't keep on the job," declared Mr. Charles W. Kiernan, the well known citizen of Conewango township, who has been tax collector for 12 years.

"I was so badly constipated that I had to take medicine almost every night, and this condition often made my stomach feel upset, and my food would turn sour, gas bloated me up, and seemed like my breath would be cut off and the 'heartburn' was frightful. My nerves were easily ruffled and I'd be so restless that many nights I'd lie awake for hours."

"I was about ready to give up and go to bed, when I was advised to try Vendol. This grand medicine acted on my bowels and gave such thorough relief from the constipation that soon I noticed all those other troubles had disappeared and I never have

Philadelphia, Aug. 8—(P)—The Philadelphia zoo has rare animals and birds from all parts of the world, but it has no ants.

"IN PINK OF CONDITION AFTER TAKING VENDOL," HE DECLARES

Conewango Tax Collector was at point of giving up before taking famous medicine. Never tried anything so good, he says

BUY A PINT—SAVE 50

"Before taking a course of Vendol and the little Vendol laxative tablets, I was feeling terrible and many a day thought I couldn't keep on the job," declared Mr. Charles W. Kiernan, the well known citizen of Conewango township, who has been tax collector for 12 years.

"I was so badly constipated that I had to take medicine almost every night, and this condition often made my stomach feel upset, and my food would turn sour, gas bloated me up, and seemed like my breath would be cut off and the 'heartburn' was frightful. My nerves were easily ruffled and I'd be so restless that many nights I'd lie awake for hours.

"I was about ready to give up and go to bed, when I was advised to try Vendol. This grand medicine acted on my bowels and gave such thorough relief from the constipation that soon I noticed all those other troubles had disappeared and I never have any more gas, sour stomach, spots before my eyes, 'heartburn,' and I enjoy restful sleep every night.

"Vendol is the most wonderful medicine I ever tried and I feel in the pink of condition since taking it."

If you are in need of a safe, reliable medicine, why not give Vendol a trial? It has helped many people all around here, so don't put it off—start today.

Vendol is sold by all leading druggists and is highly recommended here by Miller's Cut Rate Drug Store.

SALVATION ARMY WAR RELIEF IS GOING FORWARD

Salvation Army War Relief activities continue on an extensive scale, in spite of compulsory evacuations during recent weeks, in several occupied areas.

Army leaders are more than grateful for the response being made to the National June appeal for funds to this essential work. Unofficial reports recently made at an officers' council conducted in Pittsburgh by Commissioner Alexander Damon of New York City revealed a much greater response in voluntary donations in the national appeal than were included in the goal set. Such gifts continue to swell the fund daily.

This fact has been most encouraging for the needs have been staggering in totals of destitution. Warren Area was complimented for its generous total to the fund.

Commissioner Damon told Army leaders in the Pittsburgh council sessions that in addition to the cash donations, tens of thousands of garments had been received and shipped to London and arrived in safety. Mrs. Damon personally supervised the assorting and packing of the garments during the early summer months and this work continues.

Most of the dispatched garments were hand knitted and all the shipments were accepted on English vessels without charge. This saving is quite marked as shipments charges are extremely high due to the perilous voyages necessary in transit.

General George Carpenter, international leader of the Salvation Army, has repeatedly expressed heartfelt appreciation to the United States for the co-operation received.

LOPEZ SEES NO WORSE THAN 3RD FOR PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, Aug. 8.—(P)—Al Lopez, the smart $50,000 catcher sparking the flashy first division drive of the once-listless Pirates, said today the Pittsburgh club should finish in the National League's third place and "maybe higher."

The Bucs, having taken fifth place from the St. Louis Cards this week, will try to knock the Cubs out of the first division in a four-game series starting tonight. The Pirates are now only a half game behind the fourth-place Cubs.

The Pirates' renaissance started at the time the club bought Lopez from the Boston Bees some weeks ago. One of the cleverest back-stoppers in the business, he has made the pitching shine through wise handling and has pulled sensational plays himself to save ball games.

Two recent examples were when he picked Pee-Wee Reese off second to stop the Dodgers and pulled the same trick on Joe Orango Wednesday to thwart the Cardinals.

But modest Al doesn't talk about his own abilities. "The pitchers have enough stuff to win with any club," he said. "The trouble before was that the fielding was erratic, but now it's better. The team is hustling 100 percent and we have a good chance to finish third, maybe higher."

Frankie Frisch, who juggled the Pirates every which way until he found the winning combination, has the same idea. "I guess we're getting the breaks we didn't get the first of the season," the manager said. "Everybody is giving all he has and everything is clicking. I don't know where we're going, but we'll try to make it tough for everybody."

Frankie Frisch, who juggled the Pirates every which way until he found the winning combination, has the same idea. The labor ruling which prohibits boys from caddying until they are 14 and a "working permit" for them until they are 17 is among the most hotly discussed regulations of its kind, and while generally passed up for more important investigations there have been some over-seers who have checked it very closely, much to the disgust of golfers and to the disappointment of lads who are bent on earning some spending money. An editorial on the subject was passed on to us this week by one of our golfing companions, the editorial commenting that caddies are taught good deportment, that the work is pleasant and healthy and the job keeps them out of doors and out of mischief. In many cases the few bucks a week that some of the boys bring home are helping buy clothes, shoes and, in some cases, food for other children in the family.

Although not a subject of much publicity, there is a young heavyweight battling around Gotham who within the next year may be in a ring with Joe Louis or against whomever is occupying the vacant throne at the time. The aspirant, Charley Ketchuk, has recently stepped into the limelight with a 10-round decision over Wally Sears, and his manager, Jersey Jones, is now readying him for a bout with Pat Comiskey by tossing his boy against some third and fourth-raters to give him some practical experience. Charley first pulled on a glove for money on July 14, 1939 and has fought 19 times, winning eight by knockouts, nine by decision and losing a split-vote bout with Dan Merrill of Cleveland. Ketchuk, of Russian extraction, was born in Pennsylvania but for the last eight years has lived in Endicott, N. Y.

With the completion of next Sunday's "quadruple header" at Community Park in Port Allegany, the Penn-York first annual softball tournament will step clear of its early rounds and settle down for the stretch run. Among the games to be played Sunday is the tilt between Count's Restaurant, of Warren, and the strong Bolivar Refiners. This contest is scheduled for four o'clock and will bring together two of the toughest teams in the tourney, according to the publicity release from Port Allegany. Teams which have already advanced include the No. 1 team of the Sylvania Tubes, Emporium and Wellsville A. C.

PRUSOFF MEETS Mike Jacobs Admits RIGGS AGAIN IN He Is Talking Price With Dodger Owners EASTERN TENNIS

Rye, N. Y., Aug. 8.—(P)—Henry Prusoff was an easy guy to talk to yesterday, especially if you wanted to talk about Betsy Grant.

Five minutes after reporters cornered him for the low down on his 6-4, 6-3 upset of Frankie Parker in the quarter-final round of the eastern grass court championships, the telephone rang. It was Grant.

Betsy wanted to tell Prusoff that he had just licked Joe Hunt, the midshipman, 6-3, 3-6, 6-2. Prusoff howled his congratulations into the mouthpiece, turned around and said, "Betsy's sure a great little fighter. He's got a fighting heart from way back."

That was tribute from an authority, because Prusoff himself had to be more than courageous five years ago when he broke his back in an elevator accident, spent six months in a hospital and listed politely but skeptically to doctors who told him he would never walk again.

Prusoff's semi-final opponent Saturday will be Bobby Riggs, the defending champion, who beat Frank Shields, of New York, 6-8, 6-4, 6-2, yesterday. McNeill, a winner at 6-2, 8-7, over Gardner Mulholland meets Grant today.

Alice Marble, who played 61 games in two singles matches and one doubles test, dropped a set to Pauline Betz, of Los Angeles, who finally yielded, 3-6, 6-0, 6-2. Miss Marble is paired against Gracy Wheeler, of Santa Monica, Calif., in the lower bracket, while Helen Jacobs, of Berkeley, Calif., meets Sarah Palfrey, of Reno, Nev., in the upper.

It's as evident as the headlines today that Bobby Feller can pitch the Cleveland Indians into the American League championship ship singlehanded—or even with two hands.

The famous fireballer stands out as the best hurler in baseball, with 19 victories already in the bag, but the Indians are in second place just the same and unless they can figure out something else, they may stay there.

Cleveland had a chance to take over the lead yesterday. The Detroit Tigers were idle and the Tribe was down for a doubleheader with the seventh-place St. Louis Browns.

Feller took care of winning the first game, 7-4, pitching shutout ball for five innings until his teammates got him a working margin. Then came the nightcap and even with Johnny Humphries pitching three-hit ball the Tribe couldn't capture the crucial game. Elden Auker of the Browns gave up eight hits, but he kept them scattered and singled home one of the runs that won the game, 2-1. The Red Sox reinforced their third place position by whipping the New York Yankees again, 6-5, bunching seven of their 13 hits in the last two innings and notching the winning tally with two out in the ninth on Manager Joe Cronin's single.

The Athletics beat the Washington Senators 6-4 in ten innings. Frank Hayes delivered a pinch double to tie the score in the ninth and in the tenth a single and two more doubles provided the winning margin.

An even more breathtaking spectacle was the Brooklyn Dodgers' 6-3 triumph over the New York Giants on Dolph Camilli's 12th home run in the 12th inning. Two were out and two were on at the time, Peeewe Reese had hit a homer with one on to tie the score in the seventh and Nick Wittek had put the Giants in the lead originally with a two-run circuit blow.

Bucky Walters checked the skid of the Cincinnati Reds by scattering nine hits so effectively that he shutout the Chicago Cubs after the first inning and won 3-1.

In the only other National League game the Boston Bees prodded the Phillies into their ninth consecutive defeat, 6-2. Jim Tobin, apparently recovered from his arm trouble, allowed only seven hits and Eddie Miller helped with a homer. He now has hit one in each of the last five games.

ALL STARS WIN TWO

The west end all stars won two games from the C. C. caddies. The scores being 18-9, and 18-2, the winning pitchers being B. Wiedert, V. Greto, and the losing pitchers being A. Lucia and A. Juliano.

Semipro Champs Again Going to Puerto Rico; They Will See Enough of Paige to Learn Why Managers Wish He Were Eligible for Majors

A TRIP to Puerto Rico again is in store for the winners of the national semi-professional baseball tournament in Wichita, Aug. 16-28, but things won't be so pleasant when they arrive on the tropical Caribbean island.

For LeRoy Paige and the San Juan Guayamas will be waiting for them . . . to defend their world semi-pro championship in a series starting Sept. 21.

The Guayamas beat the American representatives—the Duncan, Okla., Halliburton Cementers—a year ago in the first semi-pro world series. They bagged four of six engagements in a series so tight that only 30 runs were scored by the two clubs.

The Guayamas earned the right to defend the world title by breezing to their second consecutive pennant in the Puerto Rican eight-team major league behind the remarkable pitching of licorice-colored Satchel Paige.

PAIGE, who trains on fried chicken, hot cakes and warm biscuits, was perhaps the best known and certainly the most colorful semi-pro pitcher in the United States. Thirty-four now, but with the appearance of one in his early 20s, Paige broke in early . . . in New Mexico, where he grew up and learned to pitch. He was for the crack Pittsburgh Crawfords of the Negro National League for several seasons . . . toiled in the Black Hills of North Dakota. He is a legend on the Pacific coast, where in winter games he trimmed big league pitchers without working up a sweat.

Suddenly out of an elongated mass of arms and legs that is Paige's windup comes the ball from a big right hand that seems to hang below his knee.

The sphere fairly sizzles across a corner of the plate.

PAIGE—the Satchel is derived from his ample feet—works every other day. It could be every day if he had to.

"Ah don't get tired," beams Satchel Paige, who has the deep variety of modesty of the Dizzy Dean he so greatly admired. "They just like to see a different face in dere. Dat's why I takes a rest."

But the national semi-professional champions will see enough of Satchel Paige in Puerto Rico to learn why for years managers have wished he were eligible for big league play.

Pittsburgh, Aug. 9—(AP)—Al Lopez, the smart $50,000 catcher sparking the flashy first division drive of the once-lousy Pirates, said today the Pittsburgh club should finish in the National League's third place and "maybe higher."

The Bucs, having taken fifth place from the St. Louis Cards this week, will try to knock the Cubs out of the first division in a four-game series starting tonight. The Pirates are now only a half game behind the fourth-place Cubs.

The Pirates' renaissance started at the time the club bought Lopez from the Boston Bees some weeks ago. One of the cleverest backstoppers in the business, he has made the pitching shine through wise handling and has pulled sensational plays himself to save ball games.

Two recent examples were when he picked Pee-Wee Reese off second to stop the Dodgers and pulled the same trick on Joe Judge Wednesday to thwart the Cardinals.

But modest Al doesn't talk about his own abilities.

"The pitchers have enough stuff to win with any club," he said. "The trouble before was that the fielding was erratic, but now it's better. The team is hustling 100 percent and we have a good chance to finish third, maybe higher."

Frankie Frisch, who juggled the Pirates every which way until he found the winning combination, has the same idea.

"I guess we're getting the breaks we didn't get the first of the season," the manager said. "Everybody is giving all he has and everything is clicking. I don't know where we're going, but we'll try to make it tough for everybody."

KANE FOOTBALL COACH OFFERED NEW POSITION

Hiram "Dutch" Usilaner, head football coach and instructor at Kane High School for the past six years, yesterday applied for release from his contract with the McKean county school to accept a similar post with a Washington, D. C. high school.

His request was submitted to Superintendent of Schools G. H. Rickett who will turn it over to the school board for consideration at a special meeting this evening. It is generally believed that the board will agree to accept his resignation.

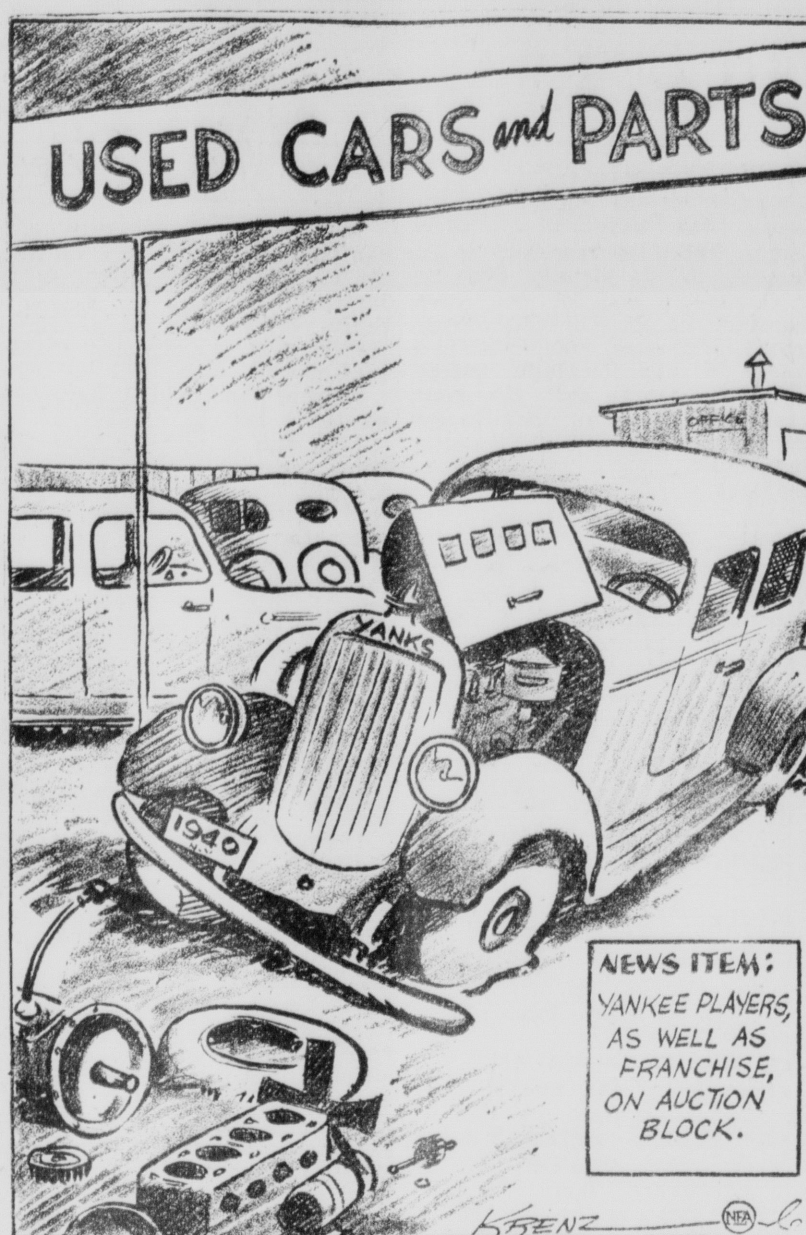

Usilaner has not only developed successful football teams at Kane but has gained recognition for advancement of the boys' intramural department and for pioneering winter sports activities at Kane High School. In addition to coaching, Usilaner teaches physical education and biology. As a result of his supervision every student in the institution took part in intramural activities.

Kane topped the Allegheny Mountain Conference during Usilaner's reign, and in the 1938-39 season lost only two in a total of 18 games.

New Model Out Soon

The labor ruling which prohibits boys from caddying until they are 14 and a "working permit" for them until they are 17 is among the most hotly discussed regulation of its kind, and while generally passed up for more important investigations there have been some overzealous who have checked it very closely, much to the disgust of golfers and to the disappointment of lads who are bent on earning some spending money. An editorial on the subject was passed on to us this week by one of our golfing companions, the editorial commenting that caddies are taught good deportment, that the work is pleasant and healthy and the job keeps them out of doors and out of mischief. In many cases the few bucks a week that some of the boys bring home are helping buy clothes, shoes and, in some cases, food for other children in the family.

Although not a subject of much publicity, there is a young heavyweight battling around Gotham who within the next year may be in a ring with Joe Louis or against whomever is occupying the unlimited throne at the time. The aspirant, Charley Ketchuk, has recently stepped into the limelight with a 10-round decision over Wally Sears, and his manager, Jersey Jones, is now readying him for a bout with Pat Comiskey by tossing his boy against some third and fourth-raters to give him some practical experience. Charley first pulled on a glove for money on July 14, 1939 and has fought 19 times, winning eight by knockouts, nine by decision and losing a split-vote bout with Dan Merritt of Cleveland. Ketchuk, of Russian extraction, was born in Pennsylvania but for the last eight years has lived in Endicott, N. Y.

With the completion of next Sunday's "quadruple header" at Community Park in Port Allegany, the Penn-York first annual softball tournament will step clear of its early rounds and settle down for the stretch run. Among the games to be played Sunday is the tilt between Count's Restaurant, of Warren, and the strong Bolivar Refiners. This contest is scheduled for four o'clock and will bring together two of the toughest teams in the tourney, according to the publicity released from Port Allegany. Teams which have already advanced include the No. 1 team of the Sylvania Tubes, Emporium and Wellsville A. C.

PRUSOFF MEETS RIGGS AGAIN IN EASTERN TENNIS

Rye, N. Y., Aug. 9—(AP)—Henry Prusoff was an easy guy to talk to yesterday, especially if you wanted to talk about Betsy Grant. Five minutes after reporters cornered him for the low down on his 6-4, 6-3 upset of Frankie Park-er in the quarter-final round of the eastern grass court championships, the telephone rang. It was Grant.

Betsy wanted to tell Prusoff that he had just licked Joe Hunt, the midshipman, 6-3, 3-6, 6-2. Prusoff howled his congratulations into the mouthpiece, turned around and said, "Betsy's sure a great little fighter. He's got a fighting heart from way back."

That was tribute from an authority, because Prusoff himself had to be more than courageous five years ago when he broke his back in an elevator accident, spent six months in a hospital and listened politely but skeptically to doctors who told him he would never walk again.

Prusoff's semi-final opponent Saturday will be Bobby Riggs, the defending champion, who beat Frank Shields, of New York, 6-8, 6-4, 6-2, yesterday. McNeill, a winner at 6-2, 9-7, over Gardnar Mulloy meets Grant today.

Alice Marble, who played 61 games in two singles matches and one doubles test, dropped a set to Pauline Betz, of Los Angeles, who finally yielded, 3-6, 6-0, 6-2. Miss Marble is paired against Gracyn Wheeler, of Santa Monica, Calif., in the lower bracket, while Helen Jacobs, of Berkeley, Calif., meets Sarah Palfrey, of Reno, Nev., in the upper.

GRUDGE BATTLE AT HOSPITAL TOMORROW

A "grudge battle" which was created when the State Hospital trimmed Asheville two weeks ago will be played tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on the North Warren diamond.

Asheville, claiming they were without their full team in the previous contest, informed Manager Gardner today that they are "loaded for bear," and will avenge the defeat.

Joe Gilson or Jim Rose will hurl for the Gardner-Swanson crew.

Mike Jacobs Admits He Is Talking Price With Dodger Owners

New York, Aug. 9—(AP)—If and when Mike Jacobs buys the Brooklyn Baseball Dodgers—and Mike says it's more "when" than "if"—the only "syndicate" involved will be Michael Strauss Jacobs himself. Laughing at the talk that he's only one of a group in the deal, "Uncle Mike" explained carefully today that up to now it has been strictly a "lone wolf" proposition. "Why should I take a lot of other men in the thing?" he pointed out. The bank (Brooklyn Trust Company, which controls 51 percent of the Dodger stock) came to me as an individual and started the negotiations. We've reached the stage now where we're going to get down to talking price.

"If it looks like a good thing from a business standpoint, I'd be pretty silly to cut a lot of other guys in. Sure, I may have to help in the financing, but I know where to get the dough without getting tangled up with a lot of partners."

Mike can't see how any hitch can come into the sale now. He doesn't think any of the other club owners will stand in his way. The Trust Company and the other stockholders are to sit down to a meeting today to iron out details, and after that the fight promoter figures it's just a breeze.

Incidentally, Mike has no idea of giving up fight promoting just because he may own a league ball club.

"I get too much of a kick out of putting on fights, and maneuvering around," he said. "Why should I quit?"

The negotiations for the Dodgers started the night of the bout between Lew Jenkins and Henry Armstrong, July 17. Two days later Mike had all the figures on the club's attendance, costs and farm system. He doesn't know yet what the price will be, but the guess is within shouting distance of $2,000,000.

Jacobs insisted he must have the club 100 percent—lock, stock and barrel.

"I wanted whole hog or nothing," he said today, "because when I own a club and want to buy a ball club, I don't want any board of directors or a lot of stockholders fooling around with the idea for days. I want to work fast, walk right in there and get the player, quick, before the price goes up."

And, yet, some of the boys say he doesn't know anything about baseball.

One Minute Interview

Mike Jacobs: "When Dan Parker of the Mirror asked me about buying the Dodgers he laughed and said 'Did you ever play a game of baseball?' I said no—and I ain't ever been in the ring, either."

SECRETARY SUICIDES

Slashed in the throat and abdomen, the body of C. Wray Lemon, executive secretary of the Camden, N. J., County Chamber of Commerce and for ten years secretary of the Oil City Chamber of Commerce, was found in a vacant lot near Oaklayn yesterday. The coroner said the death was "definitely a suicide." Lemon had been despondent and nervous since undergoing a serious operation last March.

FATHER DIES

The body of Jens Pete Jackson, 65, of Dushoga, father of Mrs. Lloyd Hulings, of R. D. 1, Clarendon, was found in the woods a half mile from Westline Wednesday night by searchers. Mr. Jackson, a woodcutter, was believed to have died of a heart attack. The body was found lying near a stream about 500 feet from the Westline-Tallyho road. He was said to have gone into the woods to cut poles for his own use.

Defense Program

The War Department chief told a congressional subcommittee that "the fault" for such a limited number of plane contracts was not with the army and that "so far as I am aware" there had been no undue delay in the preparation of the army's specifications and designs. The fault has not been with the Defense Advisory Commission, he said, and "the representatives of industry have been earnest" in a desire to cooperate with defense agencies.

Despite the delay in awarding June contracts, the defense commission reported that America's expanding aircraft factories are turning out warplanes now at the rate of 10,800 annually. William S. Knudsen, commission production chief, said in a radio broadcast last night that the 18,000-a-year mark would be passed by next January.

Knudsen and other commissioners who spoke on the broadcast described their work during the last 10 weeks.

Each Side Claiming a Victory

under the protection of British navy units.

Besides the ships claimed to have been sunk by the German air force, the Nazi High Command also asserted torpedo boats sank 17,000 tons of shipping in swift raids along the channel.

German air raiders roared inland over Britain last night and today in attacks that followed almost without letup yesterday's day-long raids.

Neutral military observers in London speculated that long-threatened German invasion of Britain might be timed with Italian thrusts now under way in Africa.

Government leaflets stuck under householders' doors "warned Britons to 'stay where you are,' to keep from clogging arteries for emergency troop movements, and to 'seek shelter and stay there' to keep from being killed in air raids.

Ten scattered German radio stations went off the air and British intercepted this as an indication the Royal Air Force was hitting back with the widest-spread bombing yet attempted against the Nazis.

Indian Nationalist leaders voiced no immediate reaction to Britain's proposal of possible independence for India at the end of the war in a bid for war-help.

Pennsy Traffic Is Delayed By Slight Wreck of Freight

A pair of trucks on a car on an eastbound train on the Pennsylvania Railroad were derailed between St. Marys and Emporium early yesterday morning, delaying traffic over the division for several hours.

A "hot box" was believed responsible for the accident.

Mail and passengers from west-bound passenger train 351 were brought from Emporium Junction to Warren by bus, as the train was derailed by an Olean. The train arrived in Warren only ten minutes behind schedule.

KEY OFFICIALS ON THE LIQUOR BOARD FIRED

Harrisburg, Aug. 8.—(P)—A reorganization in the Liquor Control Board today had claimed the jobs of two key officials.

Letters of dismissal were sent yesterday from the governor's office to Charles W. Bepler, chief of the division of inventory control, and H. Raymond Greenleaf, principal chemist.

Greenleaf set up the laboratories when the state stores system was started in 1933, and had been head of them since. He said his dismissal letter stated the action was "for the good of the service."

William S. Rial, chairman of the Liquor Board, acknowledging the dismissals, said they were "part of a plan of reorganization that was discussed with the governor to create greater efficiency in operation."

From his home at Greensburg, Rial indicated further changes are contemplated.

SIXTH CROWN FOR ILLINOIS ARCHER

Amherst, Mass., Aug. 8.—(P)—Russ Hoogerhyde, of Northbrook, Ill., had the men's national archery title for the sixth time today, recapturing his crown in a driving finish with Marvin Schmidt, of Chicago.

Schmidt held a 46-point lead yesterday as the contestants entered the gruelling single and double Americans, but Hoogerhyde, who holds the all-time records in these events, made his last three arrows count so tellingly that he piled up a total of 440-2962. Schmidt, who finished second, scored a total of 434-2956.

STEELERS PURCHASE LINEMAN FROM BEARS

Pittsburgh, Aug. 8.—(P)—The Steelers today announced acquisition of Alex Shollog, former Notre Dame tackle, from the Chicago Bears. To put through the deal the club agreed to give the Bears the Steelers' tenth pick in next year's draft.

The Pittsburgh team received two other tackles from the New York Giants, in carrying out an old deal. They were Jack Saunders, formerly of Southern Methodist, and Jack Yurcik, who played with Jersey City last fall.

Mid-Air Attack On Stewardess Is Unexplained

"It's still just a big mystery," he said. The stewardess' nervous condition yesterday prevented lengthy questioning, although Paul Stanley, local sales manager for the airlines, said she gave a partial description of an encounter with a man in the lounge.

Meanwhile, mail from the plane which was sent on from Nashville in another ship was impounded in Los Angeles on orders of Thomas Cotton, attaché of the local postal inspection office, who flew west with the shipment.

Cotton said that none of the 14 passengers was under suspicion and that all had been permitted to leave. He ordered the passenger list kept secret.

Miss Griffith remained in the hospital where she has been since the plane arrived. Hospital authorities said her injuries, scratched and bruised legs and arms and a head wound, were not serious.

Penn's Troops Against Invading "Black Army" In Major War Maneuver

Ogdensburg, N. Y., Aug. 8.—(P)—A gradually-increased training program on land and in the air stepped up the tempo today of the First Army's preparations for northern New York's "battle of the St. Lawrence."

While additional planes roared over the 1,300 square miles of the maneuver area, the troops broadened activity to include scouting expeditions, drills, and simulated combat with some real and many make-believe weapons.

About 35 per cent of the earth gets less than 20 inches of rainfall annually.

Steel helmets and gas masks double the discomfort of the broiling African sun when British soldiers, entrenched in the Sudan desert near Egyptian-Ethiopian frontier, stand by to repulse large-scale Italian attack.

(R-Conn), Nye (R-ND) and Lundberg (FL-Minn).

The Senate adopted unanimously an amendment by Senator Pittman (D-Nev) to permit guardsmen and reservists with dependent wives or children to resign within 20 days after enactment of the measure. Only the day before the chamber had defeated a proposal to let any enrollee quit the service.

Administration forces, aided by some Republican votes, beat off 39 to 38 an amendment by Senator Adams (D-Colo) to restrict use of the Guard to the continental United States, American possessions and the Philippines.

As the bill now stands, its operations would be authorized anywhere in the western hemisphere. Had Adams' amendment been approved, the guard could not be sent to Latin America.

Conscription foes said the close vote against this amendment indicated that there was much latent opposition in the Senate to compulsory service. But Senator Barkley, of Kentucky, the Democratic leader, said he saw in it only a reaction to public demand that American troops be kept out of the European war.

Approximately 396,000 guardsmen, reserve officers, enlisted reserves, retired officers and retired enlisted men would be subject to call for a year's service under the bill.

Gen. George C. Marshall, army chief of staff, testified, however, that only 55,426 enlisted men, 3,930 officers and 53 warrant officers of the guard would be ordered to duty immediately.

Musterings of a portion of the National Guard is considered by military men as a preliminary to any conscription program, for the guard and reserve officers would train the drafted units.

Conscription advocates have proposed a date about Sept. 1 for registration, with the first 400,000 men to be called into compulsory service a month later.

It begins to appear unlikely, however

SECRETARY SUICIDES

Slashed in the throat and abdomen, the body of C. Wray Lemon, executive secretary of the Camden, N. J., County Chamber of Commerce and for ten years secretary of the Oil City Chamber of Commerce, was found in a vacant lot near Oaklawn yesterday. The coroner said the death was "definitely a suicide." Lemon had been despondent and nervous since undergoing a serious operation last March.

FATHER DIES

The body of Jens Pete Jackson, 65, of Dehoga, father of Mrs. Lloyd Hulings, of R. D. 1, Clarendon, was found in the woods a half mile from Westline Wednesday night by searchers. Mr. Jackson, a woodcutter, was believed to have died of a heart attack. The body was found lying near a stream about 500 feet from the Westline-Tallyho road. He was said to have gone into the woods to cut poles for his own use.

Defense Program Retarded

 The War Department chief told a congressional hearing that "the fault" for such a limited number of plane contracts was not with the army and that "so far as I am aware" there had been no undue delay in the preparation of the army's specifications and designs.

The fault has not been with the Defense Advisory Commission, he said, and "the representatives of industry have been earnest" in a desire to cooperate with defense agencies.

Despite the delay in awarding June contracts, the defense commission reported that America's expanding aircraft factories are turning out warplanes now at the rate of 10,800 annually. William S. Knudsen, commission production chief, said in a radio broadcast last night that the 18,000-a-year mark would be passed by next January.

Knudsen and other commissioners who spoke on the broadcast described their work during the last 10 weeks.

Each Side Claiming A Victory

 under the protection of British navy units.

Besides the ships claimed to have been sunk by the German air force, the Nazi High Command also asserted torpedo boats sank 17,000 tons of shipping in swift raids along the channel.

German air raiders roared inland over Britain last night and today in attacks that followed almost without letup yesterday's day-long raids.

Neutral military observers in London speculated that long-threatened German invasion of Britain might be timed with Italian thrusts now under way in Africa.

Government leaflets stuck under householders' doors warned Britons to "stay where you are," to keep from clogging arteries for emergency troop movements, and to "seek shelter and stay there" to keep from being killed in air raids.

Ten scattered German radio stations went off the air and British interpreted this as an indication that the Royal Air Force was hitting back with the widest-spread bombing yet attempted against the Nazis.

Indian Nationalist leaders voiced no immediate reaction to Britain's proposal of possible independence for India at the end of the war in a bid for war-help.

Pennsy Traffic Is Delayed By Slight Wreck of Freight

A pair of trucks on a car on an eastbound ore train on the Pennsylvania Railroad were derailed yesterday morning, delaying traffic over the division for several hours.

A "hot box" was believed responsible for the accident.

Mail and passengers from west-bound passenger train 581 were brought from Emporium Junction to Warren by bus, as the train was detained via Clear. The train arrived in Warren only ten minutes behind schedule.

KEY OFFICIALS ON THE LIQUOR BOARD FIRED

Harriburg, Aug. 9.—(P)—A reorganization in the Liquor Control Board today had claimed the jobs of two key officials.

Letters of dismissal were sent yesterday from the governor's office to Charles W. Beppler, chief of the division of inventory control, and H. Raymond Greenleaf, principal chemist.

Greenleaf set up the laboratories when the state stores system was started in 1933, and had been head of them since. He said his dismissal letter stated the action was "for the good of the service."

William S. Rial, chairman of the Liquor Board, acknowledging the dismissal, said they were "part of a plan of reorganization" that was discussed with the governor to create greater efficiency in operation.

From his home at Greensburg, Rial indicated further changes are contemplated.

SIXTH CROWN FOR ILLINOIS ARCHER

Amherst, Mass., Aug. 9.—(P)—Russ Hoogerhyde, of Northbrook, Ill., held the men's national archery title for the sixth time today, recapturing his crown in a driving finish with Marvin Schmidt, of Chicago.

Schmidt held a 46-point lead yesterday as the contestants entered the gruelling single and double Americans, but Hoogerhyde, who holds the all-time records in these events, made his last three arrows count so tellingly that he piled up a total of 440-2962.

Schmidt, who finished second, scored a total of 454-29

COUNCIL HOLDS BUSY SESSION AT YOUNGSVILLE

Youngsville, Aug. 8.—With all members and Burgess Warren Kay present, Youngsville council held an interesting and busy session this week.

The water committee reported favorably on extending the water line up West Main street extension to the borough line.

The committee previously appointed to investigate the advisability of extending the borough line at the west to Mead creek reported that a large majority of the residents of this section were very favorable to having their homes incorporated into the borough.

A purchase of 400 feet of 1½ inch fire hose and 500 feet of 2½ inch fire hose was reported by the fire hose committee.

A resolution was passed that the borough would complete new concrete sidewalks for property owners at the rate of ten cents per square foot, this walk to be at the proper grade level. This sidewalk project also includes all grading and relaying of brick walks where this type of walk is preferred.

Ordinance No. 164, authorizing the laying of sewers on the west side of Brokenstraw creek passed first and second reading at this meeting.

A motion was also passed granting the secretary of the borough an increase of $15 a month.

P. R. R. In Record Dock Business At Erie During July

Explaining the revival of freight business over the Renovo division of the Pennsylvania railroad through Warren, it was stated in Erie Tuesday that the largest volume of business in the annals of the road was handled over the ore and coal docks during the month of July.

The unusual amount of iron ore being handled over the P. R. R. docks this season is believed to be the result of the large amount of business being done in the steel mills because of war conditions.

and the national defense program now in progress, and the resultant need for this commodity. During July a total of 628,315 tons of iron ore were unloaded from boats, loaded into cars and shipped out over the P. R. R. lines here. This breaks all records for ore handling in any one month here, it was said.

So far this season 1,824,314 tons of iron ore have been unloaded from steamers, loaded into cars and shipped out over the Renovo division of the Pennsylvania railroad, which shatters all previous records for ore handling up to the end of July in any one year, it was pointed out.
